

Hiltrud Schinzel

Touching Vision

Essays on Restoration Theory and the Perception of Art

GHENT
UNIVERSITY

VUB BRUSSELS
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Ghent University – Published by the Faculty of Arts and Philosophy

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
I. ESSAYS ON RESTORATION
A. MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART	15
Two Theoretical Aspects of the Restoration of Modern Art	17
The problems of Ageing	23
Modern Art – an Object for Disposal?	27
Sleeping Beauty sleep on. Is Today's Art awakening the Vandal in Us?	43
Searching for the Cloned Egg	53
Mixed Media, Mixed Function, Mixed positions	65
The Significance of Artwork Semantics for the Restoration of Modern and Contemporary Works	77
The Significance of Material, Techniques and Media for Contemporary Art and its Conservation	85
B. PROBLEMS RELATING TO EXHIBITIONS	115
Originals and Copies - on their Preservation and Utilization	117

Transports of Delight	123
C. RESTORATION: HISTORY, THEORY, ETHICS	133
Restoration - a Kaleidoscope through History	135
Freelance Restorers in Conflict between Ethics and the Client	141
Visibility of Restoration - Legibility of Artworks	153
D. RESTORATION: INSIGHTS AND PERSPECTIVES	167
Restoration and the Deathdrive of Postmodernism	169
The Restorer's Charms and Grace in Art	179
Restoration Between Art and Science	189
II. POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF WORKS OF ART - THE PERCEPTION OF ART	219
Art and Consumption	221
Mental Grace, Aesthetics and Peace	227
Kitschman goes Flexible	235
Art, the Senses and Peace	243
Art and the Epiphany of Insight	253