MODERNISM

on Sea

Art and Culture
at the British Seaside

EDITED BY
Lara Feigel and Alexandra Harris

Peter Lang Oxford
Contents

Acknowledgements ix

List of Illustrations xi

Introduction 1
    LARA FEIGEL and ALEXANDRA HARRIS

Part I Seaside Holidays

Kiss Me Quick:
The Aesthetics of Excess in 1930s Literature and Film 15
    LARA FEIGEL

Morecambe: The Sunset Coast 35
    MICHAEL BRACEWELL

Beside the Seaside, Beside the Sea 45
    ANDREW KÖTTING

Part II Sand and Stucco

London to Brighton:
The Indian Summer of the Camden Town Group 55
    NICOLA MOORBY

‘Remember Scarborough’: The Sitwells on the Sands 71
    DEBORAH PARSONS

‘A Good Time Was Had By All’? Stevie Smith Beside the Seaside 85
    WILLIAM MAY
Part III  Seaside Poetics

‘The Purest Ecstasy’: Virginia Woolf and the Sea  101
David Bradshaw

Survivals of Ariel: Sea and Form in Sylvia Plath’s Poetry  117
Ben Morgan

Part IV  Nautical Style

In the Nautical Tradition: John Piper  135
Frances Spalding

Modernism at Sea: Ocean Liners and the Avant-garde  145
Bruce Peter and Philip Dawson

1930s Architecture and the Cult of the Sun  159
Fred Gray

Part V  Social Change on the Promenade

The Seaside Flâneuse in Elizabeth Bowen’s The Death of the Heart  179
Edwina Keown

The Margin of the Printable: Seaside Postcards and Censorship  191
Svetlin Stratiev

Postwar Promenade:
Pleasure, Reconstruction and the Festival of Britain  201
Paul Rennie
Part VI  Modernism and After

The Destructive Element: Benjamin Britten and Aldeburgh  211
ALAN POWERS

Seaside Ceremonies: Coastal Rites in Twentieth-Century Art  227
ALEXANDRA HARRIS

Notes  245

Index  267