Fashion in European Art

Dress and Identity, Politics and the Body, 1775–1925

Edited by Justine De Young
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii
Acknowledgements xi

Introduction: Addressing Fashion in Art 1
Justine DeYoung

1. From the Studio to the Street: Modelling Neoclassical Dress in Art and Life 11
Amelia Rauser

2. Parures, Pashminas, and Portraiture, or, How Joséphine Bonaparte Fashioned the Napoleonic Empire 36
Heather Belnap Jensen

3. Temporalities of Costume and Fashion in Art of the Romantic Period 60
Susan L. Siegfried

4. Dress and Desire: Rossetti's Erotics of the Unclassifiable and Working-Class Models 91
Julie Codell

5. Mourning for Paris: The Art and Politics of Dress after 'l'année terrible' (1870–1) 120
Justine DeYoung
CONTENTS

6. Mannequin and Monkey in Seurat's Grande Jatte 150
   Emmelyn Butterfield-Rosen

7. 'But the coat is the picture': Issues of Masculine Fashioning, Politics, and Sexual Identity in Portraiture in England c. 1890–1900 178
   Andrew Stephenson

8. Silencing Fashion in Early Twentieth-Century Feminism: The Sartorial Story of Suffrage 207
   Kimberly Wahl

9. Puppets, Patterns, and 'Proper Gentlemen': Men's Fashion in Anton Råderscheidt's New Objectivity Paintings 233
   Änne Söll

Contributors 258
Selected Bibliography 262
Index 268