Contents

List of illustrations vii
List of tables x
List of contributors xi
Acknowledgments xv

1 Introduction: Queen Hedwig Eleonora and the arts
KRISTOFFER NEVILLE AND LISA SKOGH 1

2 “The Queen of the North”: Hedwig Eleonora and her German family in paint and print
JILL BEPLER 18

3 Queen Hedwig Eleonora’s societal network within the Tugendliche and the Fruchtbringende Gesellschaft
GABRIELE BALL 35

4 Hedwig Eleonora as dowager queen and administrator
BJÖRN ASKER 49

5 The pretiosa cabinet at Ulriksdal Palace
LISA SKOGH 59

6 “Paint Their Majesties’ immortal praises”: Hedwig Eleonora as patron of David Klöcker Ehrenstrahl
KJELL WANGENSTEEN 78

7 The wilderness inside Drottningholm: David Klöcker Ehrenstrahl and the northern nature at the court of Hedwig Eleonora
MIKAEL AHLUND 88

8 David Klöcker Ehrenstrahl’s portraits of Hedwig Eleonora’s siblings: invention and the presentation of the family
LARS OLOF LARSSON 104

9 Hedwig Eleonora and building as a princely pursuit
LARS LJUNGSTRÖM 120
Contents

10 Hedwig Eleonora and the practice of architecture 137
   KRISTOFFER NEVILLE

11 Hedwig Eleonora, Lund University, and the Learned 147
   ANDERS JARLERT

12 Ballet, Kunstkammer, and the education of Princess Hedwig
   Eleonora at the Gottorf court 159
   MARA R. WADE

13 Hedwig Eleonora and music at the Swedish court, 1654–1726 179
   MARIA SCHILDT

14 Hedwig Eleonora in print: from “Citronat” to “Wundermutter” 190
   HELEN WATANABE-O'KELLY

Bibliography 204
Index 225