Preface
Introduction to the Study of Aging
First the Good News...the Myths of Aging. Debunking the Myths
The Study of Aging
Why Study Aging
The History of Aging
Methodological Issues in Aging Research
The Demography of Aging
Number and Proportion of the Elderly
Aging of the Older Population
The Demographic Transition
The Dependency Ratio
Sex, Race, and Ethnic Composition
Geographic Distribution
Biomedical Aspects of Aging
What Are the Results of Aging?
Mortality
Life Expectancy
Age-Related Physiological Changes
Sexuality and Aging
Why Do People Become Old?
Cellular Theories of Aging
Physiological Theories of Aging
Prolongevity
Health Status of the Elderly
Chronic Illness
Activities of Daily Living
Instrumental Activities of Daily Living
Is There Compression of Morbidity?
Mental Health Disorders and Mental Health
The Medial Model
Attribution of Illness
Aging in Psychological and Social Perspective
Psychological Aspects of Aging
Personality
Cognitive Processes: Intelligence, Wisdom and Creativity; Learning and Memory
Age-Related Changes in Sensory Processes and Psychomotor Responses
Successful Aging
Social Aspects of Aging
Three Perspectives of Human Development
Historical and Cultural Variations in the Sequencing of the Life Course
Socialization and Social Roles
Role Transitions
Life Stress, Coping, and Adaptation
Sociological Theories of Aging
Aging and the Individual
Aging and Society
Emergent Theories
The Aged and Society
Aging and Family Life
Old Age and the U.S. Family: A Look Backward
The Structure of Family in Contemporary Society
The Function of Family in Contemporary Society
The Family Life Cycle
Friendship: Quasi-Familial Relations
The Economics of Aging
The Economic Status of the Elderly
The Adequacy of Aged Income
The Social Security System
Private Pensions
Work, Retirement and Leisure
The Older Worker
Retirement
Leisure
The Politics of Aging
Political Participation and Age
Political Orientations and Attitudes of Older Persons
Are the Aged a Favored Constituency?
Are the Elderly a Political Force? The Future of Old Age Politics: Age vs. Need
Religion and Aging
In the Beginning... Functions of Religion
Age and Religious Commitment
Religion, Aging, and Health
Special Issues in Aging
Racial and Ethnic Aging
Minority Aging - A Case of Double Jeopardy?
Aging and the Minority Experience
Living Environments of the Elderly
The Impact if Environment on Older People
Where Do the Elderly Live?
Federal Housing for the Elderly