List of illustrations
List of contributors
Acknowledgements
Introduction and overview
Membership-based organizations of the poor: concepts, experience and policy
General principles: survival and success
Organizations of the poor: conditions for success
The influence of organizational structure, membership composition and resources on the survival of poor people’s social movement organizations
Trade unions
Working class struggles, labour elites, and closed shops: the lessons from India’s trade unions and experiences of organisation
China as a world factory: new practices and struggles of migrant women workers
Co-operatives
Waste picker cooperatives in developing countries
Co-operatives and the emancipation of the marginalized: case studies from two cities in India
Literacy and internal control of community finance institutions in Cambodia
Small self-help groups
Membership-based indigenous insurance associations in Ethiopia and Tanzania
SHG-based microfinance programmes: can they remove poverty?
Community-level user groups: do they perform as expected?
Campaigning organizations
Shack/Slum Dwellers International: one experience of the contribution of membership organisations to pro-poor urban development
Membership-based organisations of the poor: the South African tradition
Informal governance and organizational success: the effects of noncompliance among Lima’s street-vending organizations
Local power structures and MBOPs
Membership-based organizations as a reflection of power structures in rural “community”: experiences and observations from Sindh Province, Pakistan
Doing things differently? The everyday politics of membership-based organisations
Voice lessons: local government organizations, social organizations, and the quality of local governance
Community-driven development and the Northeast Brazil rural poverty reduction program

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.