Acknowledgments

Preface

Introduction

Smarter budgeting: the five decisions that matter most

Getting a grip on the problem

Setting the price of government

Setting the priorities of government: buying results that citizens value (at the price they are willing to pay)

Smarter sizing: it does matter

Strategic reviews: divesting to invest

Consolidation: smart mergers

Rightsizing: the right work, the right way, with the right staff

Smarter spending: buying value, squeezing costs

Buying services competitively

Rewarding performance, not good intentions

Smarter customer service: putting customers in the driver's seat

Don't buy mistrust - eliminate it

Smarter management: reforming how government works on the inside to improve its performance on the outside

Using flexibility to get accountability

Make administrative systems allies, not enemies

Smarter work process: tools from industry

Smarter leadership: managing change from the radical center

Leadership for a change

Politics: truth, lies, and the campaign for public support

Notes

Index

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.