Introduction: Theorizing Private Authority
The emergence of private authority in the international system
Private regimes and inter-firm cooperation
Market Authority: Globalization and ‘Globaloney’
Economic governance in an electronically networked global economy
Global markets, national authority and the problem of legitimation: the case of finance
The state and globalization
Moral Authority: Global Civil Society and Transnational Religious Movements
‘Regulation for the rest of us?’ Global civil society and the privatisation of transnational regulation
The global dimensions of religious terrorism
Illicit Authority: Mafias and Mercenaries
Transnational organized crime and the state
The return of the dogs of war? The privatisation of security in Africa
Conclusions and Directions
Private authority as global governance

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.