

Foreword: The Uses of Atrocity	p. ix
Introduction: The Crimes of Communism	p. 1
A State against Its People: Violence, Repression, and Terror in the Soviet Union	p. 33
Paradoxes and Misunderstandings Surrounding the October Revolution	p. 39
The Iron Fist of the Dictatorship of the Proletariat	p. 53
The Red Terror	p. 71
The Dirty War	p. 81
From Tambov to the Great Famine	p. 108
From the Truce to the Great Turning Point	p. 132
Forced Collectivization and Dekulakization	p. 146
The Great Famine	p. 159
Socially Foreign Elements and the Cycles of Repression	p. 169
The Great Terror (1936-1938)	p. 184
The Empire of the Camps	p. 203
The Other Side of Victory	p. 216
Apogee and Crisis in the Gulag System	p. 232
The Last Conspiracy	p. 242
The Exit from Stalinism	p. 250
Conclusion	p. 261
Word Revolution, Civil War, and Terror	p. 269
The Comintern in Action	p. 271
The Shadow of the NKVD in Spain	p. 333
Communism and Terrorism	p. 353
The Other Europe: Victim of Communism	p. 361
Poland, the "Enemy Nation"	p. 363
Central and Southeastern Europe	p. 394
Communism in Asia: Between Reeducation and Massacre	p. 457
Introduction	p. 459
China: A Long March into Night	p. 463
Crimes, Terror, and Secrecy in North Korea	p. 547
Vietnam and Laos: The Impasse of War Communism	p. 565
Cambodia: The Country of Disconcerting Crimes	p. 577
Conclusion	p. 636
Select Bibliography for Asia	p. 642
The Third World	p. 645
Communism in Latin America	p. 647
Afrocommunism: Ethiopia, Angola, and Mozambique	p. 683
Communism in Afghanistan	p. 705
Conclusion: Why?	p. 727
Notes	p. 759
Index	p. 823

