List of contributors

Introduction - Dialyzers and transplanters are the bioethical pointmen of modern medicine
The principles
The search for a universal system of ethics: post-modern disappointments and contemporary possibilities
Theories of justice
Selection and commercialization
Ethics issues in selection for dialysis and transplantation: the duty of advocacy

From him that hath not
Commercialization: the buying or selling of kidneys
'For-profit' and 'not-for-profit' dialysis: cost cutting and solutions in the USA

Physicians and industry: can professional integrity be maintained?
Stopping treatment
Practical aspects of stopping dialysis and cultural differences
Religious aspects of stopping treatment
Legal aspects of stopping dialysis
An ethical analysis of stopping treatment
Different views from different countries
A perspective on reality
The argument against the unrelated live donor
Ethical problems in dialysis and transplantation: Africa
Japanese view of life and organ transplantation
A different view from different countries: Eastern Europe
A different view from different countries: United Kingdom
Ethical problems in renal dialysis and transplantation: Chinese perspective

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.