

Preface
Introduction: Different Stories	p. 1
A Story about the Ways of Power	p. 1
A Dominant Story about the Separation of Church and State	p. 3
Origins of Power: The Emergence of Christianity and Antisemitism	p. 10
The New Testament	p. 10
The Christian Discourse of Redefinition: An Excursus on Power	p. 15
The Roman Establishment of Christianity: The First Crystallization of Church and State	p. 21
The Christian Middle Ages	p. 28
The Early Middle Ages	p. 28
The Later Middle Ages	p. 37
The Christian Renaissance and Reformation in Continental Europe	p. 50
The Renaissance	p. 50
The Lutheran Reformation	p. 54
The Calvinist Reformation	p. 64
The English Reformation, Civil War, and Revolution	p. 79
The English Reformation	p. 80
The Civil War, Restoration, and Revolution	p. 84
English Political Theory	p. 98
Church and State at the End of the Seventeenth Century	p. 116
The North American Colonies	p. 119
The Early Years: Calvinist Roots	p. 119
Christian Declension and Revival	p. 133
The American Revolution and Constitution	p. 145
The Revolution and Its Aftermath	p. 145
The Constitution	p. 158
The Fruits of the Framing: Church and State in Nineteenth - And Early-Twentieth-Century America	p. 175
The Nineteenth Century	p. 175
Church and State in the Early Twentieth Century	p. 203
The Fruits of the Framing: Church and State in Late-Twentieth-Century America	p. 218
The Supreme Court Intervenes	p. 218
A Brief Assessment of the Supreme Court Cases	p. 246
A Synchronic Analysis of the Separation of Church and State in the Late Twentieth Century: Concluding Remarks	p. 255
Symbolic Power	p. 256
Structural Power	p. 265
The Interaction of Symbolic and Structural Power	p. 270
Final Thoughts: A Political Statement	p. 282
Notes	p. 287
Selected Bibliography	p. 376

