Preface
Memoirs of Serge Alexander Korff
Memorial Talks of the Korff Symposium
Serge Alexander Korff (1906-1989) p. 1
Serge Korff as a Geographer p. 8
Dr. Serge Korff--Explorer p. 10
Serge Alexander Korff, Traveler p. 12
Incidents in the Life of a Cosmic Ray Physicist
From Fireworks to Cosmic Rays, 1906 to 1940 p. 15
The War Years: An Interview with Bernard Hamermesh p. 22
Reminiscences from the New York University Physics Department p. 24
Electron and Nuclear Counters p. 30
Recollections of Serge A. Korff p. 32
The Life of Balloonatics p. 35
The Ascent of Mount Wrangell: A Dialogue p. 40
Cosmic Rays and Diplomacy p. 60
Frontiers in Cosmic Physics: From Geophysics to Cosmology
The Significance of the Contributions of S. A. Korff to the Field of Cosmogenic Nuclides p. 67

Geophysics
Frontiers in Geomagnetism p. 77
Some Applications of Nuclear Physics to Oil Well Logging p. 86
Cosmic Rays
Cosmic Radiation: Particle Astrophysics in the Heliosphere p. 95
Isotopes in the Cosmic Rays p. 138
The Dark Matter in the Universe and the Origin of Cosmic Radiation p. 185
Neutrinos
Reminiscences and Neutrinos p. 196
The Search for Solar Neutrinos p. 209
Astronomy and Astrophysics with Electromagnetic Radiation
Visible and UV
Astronomy at the South Pole p. 235
Frontiers in Optical and Ultraviolet Astronomy p. 254
X-Rays
Gamma Rays
Frontiers of Gamma Ray and Neutron Observations from the Sun p. 278
Gamma Ray Astrophysics: Development and Future Prospects p. 292
Gamma Ray Observations of the Crab Pulsar--Past, Present, Future p. 309
Galactic Positron Annihilation Radiation p. 319
Astronomy from Exotic Places
