List of contributors

Introduction
Governance, networks and information technologies: societal, political, and organizational innovations
The Evolution of Regulatory Frameworks in Perspective
The interconnection regime: property and commons: learning from the telecommunication industry privatization process
Regulating networks in the 'new economy': organizing competition to share information and knowledge
Balancing informational power by informational power - or - re-reading Montesquieu in the Internet age
People on the Internet as agents of change
Reformulating the Fundamentals for Collective Regulations
Co-regulation and the rule of law
Democratic governance and reflexive modernisation of the Internet
Internet governance and the question of legitimacy
Global governance: evolutions and innovations in international relations
Self Regulations, Communities and Private Orders
On-line communities and governance mechanisms
Policing exchanges as self-description in Internet groups
The formation of conventions for Internet activities
Coordination of the international civil society and uses of Internet
The Changing Nature of the Law: Coding, Contracting and Ruling
DRM at the intersection of copyright law and technology: a case study for regulation

What contracts can't do: the limits of private ordering in facilitating a creative commons
The effects of electronic commerce technologies on business contracting behaviors

Internet governance: old issues, new framings, uncertain implications
Index

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.