

Introduction

Educating Elites: The Changing Dynamics and Meanings of Privilege and Power

Class and Family Educational Strategies

Elites: Some Questions for a New Research Agenda

A Family Affair: Reproducing Elite Positions and Preserving the Ideals of Meritocratic Competition and Youth Autonomy

Elite Families and Schools in Buenos Aires: The Role of Tradition and School Social Networks in the Production and Reproduction of Privilege

Elite Institutions in National and Local Contexts

Changes in Elite Education in the United States

The Changing Strategies of Social Closure in Elite Education in Brazil

Germany's Hesitant Approach to Elite Education. Stratification Processes in German Secondary and Higher Education

The Boundaries of Privilege: Elite English schools' Geographies and Depictions of a Local Community

The Impact of Globalization on Institutional and Student Identities

Globalisation and Elite Universities in China

The Discourse of 'Asia Rising' in an Elite Indian School

National and International Students' Definition of Merit in French Grandes Ecoles

Globalizing Femininity in Elite Schools for Girls: Some Paradoxical Failures of Success

Elite Institutions, Elite positions and Elite Jobs

Elite Universities, Elite Schooling and Reproduction in Britain

Paths to the Elite in France and in the United States

Contextually-Bound Authoritative Knowledge: A Comparative Study of British, French and Norwegian Administrative Elites' Merit and Skills

Higher Education, Corporate Talent and the Stratification of Knowledge Work in the Global Labour Market

Conclusion

Elites, Education and Identity. An Emerging Research Agenda

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.