Wave propagation and high frequency signal transmission across contact interfaces p. 199

Bending test of contact materials p. 207

Press-fit connector for automobile ECUs p. 211

Modelling the insulation displacement process - results of a finite-element model study p. 217

Rating power connectors using end-of-life voltage drop p. 225

A study of metal fiber brush operation on slip rings and commutators part I : the apparatus p. 232

A study of metal fiber brush operation on slip rings and commutators part II : the results p. 234

Characteristics of carbon flat commutator with condenser for arc quenching p. 244

Applications and properties of nanomaterials in electrical contacts p. 251

Impact of corrosion on fretting damage of electrical contacts p. 257

Electrical contact behaviour of power connector during fretting vibration p. 263

Factors influencing the fretting corrosion of tin plated contacts p. 267

On the relationship between surface wear and intermittency during fretting in electrical contacts p. 273
