Foreword

Introduction
Librarians and Their Role as Defined by Themselves and by Others

The Role of Reference Service in the Mission of the Academic Library

Personal Information Needs in a Democratic Society

Librarians and the FBI

"Send These, the Homeless, Tempest-Tost to Me"

Pseudo-Libraries and Semi-Teachers

Managers and Leaders: Are There More Differences Than Similarities?

Getting into This Mess Wasn't Easy! It Took a Lot of Effort on Our Part

Technology - A Means to an End Only If You Can Agree on the End

Professional Librarians and Professionals in Libraries

Librarians vs. Computer Professionals

Diversity Is Not Fragmentation: Building a Strong Whole from Many Parts

Off-Campus Education and Library Service - Experiences and Observations

Meetings, Bloody Meetings

The Reference Librarian as Information Intermediary: The Correct Approach Is the One That Today's Client Needs Today

The Double-Edged Sword of Library Volunteerism

Scholarly Publication, Academic Libraries, and the Assumption That These Processes Are Really Under Management Control

Information Technology, Users, and Intermediaries in the 21st Century: Some Observations and Predictions

Bailing Out the Pacific Ocean with a Teaspoon

Library Research and Government Funding - A Less Than Ardent Romance

Librarians, Their Self-Image, and the Perceptions That Define Their Preparation

Information Access and the Changing Library School Curriculum

Evaluating Personnel

Oh, Why (and Oh, What) Do We Classify?

Special Library Professionalism and Library Education

School Librarians and the Rest of Us

The Tyranny of the "Team"

The "Quiet Revolution": A Profession at the Crossroads

Librarian Burnout

The Accredited Library Education Program as Preparation for Professional Library Work

A Requiem for the Mother School of Us All

The Conflict Between Professional and Organizational Loyalty

Professional Ethics in Library and Information Science

The Library Implications of Individual and Team Empowerment

Is There a Correlation Between Library Education Programs and Athletic Success?

Why Do "They" Close Library Schools?

The Perilous Allure of Moral Imperativism