Memory Theory Applied to Intervention  p. 162
Memory Theory  p. 162
Implications of Memory Theory for Managing Deficits  p. 174
Summary  p. 188
References  p. 188
Data Sheet for Prospective Memory Training  p. 193
The Use of External Aids in Cognitive Rehabilitation  p. 194
External Aids: A Popular and Potentially Effective Technique  p. 194
What Is the Goal of Using External Aids?  p. 196
Review of Theory  p. 197
Selecting an External Compensatory Aid  p. 198
Pretraining Activities  p. 204
Training Methods  p. 208
Case Examples  p. 213
Summary  p. 217
References  p. 218
Selected Memory Aid Resources  p. 220
Needs Assessment for External Cognitive Aids (Adult Client)  p. 221
Needs Assessment for External Cognitive Aids (Student Client)  p. 224
Scoresheet for Practice Trials  p. 227
Example of Completed Scoresheet for Practice Trials  p. 228
Management of Dysexecutive Symptoms  p. 230
The Frontal Lobes  p. 230
A Clinical Model of Executive Functions  p. 235
Assessment of Executive Functions  p. 237
Management Approaches  p. 240
Summary  p. 259
References  p. 259
Summary Sheet from the Profile of the Executive Control System (PRO-EX)  p. 263
Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center Executive Function Route-Finding Task (EFRT)  p. 264
The Brock Adaptive Functioning Questionnaire (BAFQ): Sample Items from Five Scales  p. 267
Scheduling Worksheet  p. 268
The Assessment and Management of Unawareness  p. 269
Conceptual Frameworks  p. 270
Measurement of Awareness  p. 275
A Systematic Process for Assessing Awareness  p. 279
Management of Awareness Deficits  p. 283
Case Example  p. 293
References  p. 295