Object-oriented reengineering patterns - an overview p. 1
abc : the AspectBench compiler for AsectJ p. 10
Certifiable program generation p. 17
A generative programming approach to developing DSL compilers p. 29
Efficient code generation for a domain specific language p. 47
On domain-specific languages reengineering p. 63
Bossa nova : introducing modularity into the bossa domain-specific language p. 78
AOP++ : a generic aspect-oriented programming framework in C++ p. 94
Model compiler construction based on aspect-oriented mechanisms p. 109
FeatureC++ : on the symbiosis of feature-oriented and aspect-oriented programming p. 125
Shadow programming : reasoning about programs using lexical join point information p. 141
Generalized type-based disambiguation of meta programs with concrete object syntax p. 157
A versatile kernel for multi-language AOP p. 173
Semi-inversion of guarded equations p. 189
A generative programming approach to interactive information retrieval : insights and experiences p. 205
Optimizing marshalling by run-time program generation p. 221
Applying a generative technique for enhanced genericity and maintainability on the J2EE platform p. 237
Multi-stage programming with functors and monads : eliminating abstraction overhead from generic code p. 256
Implicitly heterogeneous multi-stage programming p. 275
Source-level optimization of run-time program generators p. 293
Statically safe program generation with SafeGen p. 309
A type system for reflective program generators p. 327
Sorting out the relationships between pairs of iterators, values, and references p. 342
Preprocessing eden with template haskell p. 357
Syntactic abstraction in component interfaces p. 373
Component-oriented programming with sharing : containment is not ownership p. 389
Language requirements for large-scale generic libraries p. 405
Mapping features to models : a template approach based on superimposed variants p. 422
Development dynamic and adaptable applications with CAM/DAOP : a virtual office application p. 438
Metamodeling made easy - MetaEdit+ p. 442
