Preface

Automated manufacturing p. 1
Throughput rate optimization in the automated assembly of printed circuit boards p. 17
Approximation algorithms for three-dimensional assignment problems with triangle inequalities p. 47
Scheduling jobs of equal length: complexity, facets and computational results p. 63
The tool loading problem: an overview p. 91
A column generation approach to job grouping p. 107
The job grouping problem for flexible manufacturing systems: some extensions p. 139
A local search approach to job grouping p. 171
Minimizing the number of tool switches on a flexible machine p. 191
References p. 225
