Foreword
Abbreviations in Text
Note on Transliteration of Names
List of Maps and Plates and their Sources
Problems of Method and a Survey of Sources
Nabataean “Religion”
The Study of Dead Religions
“Nabataean” Religion
The Transformations of Nabataean Religion
Syncretism or Assimilation
The Sources
Background: Nabataean History and Trade
Nabataean History
Nabataean Trade
The Nabataean Regions
Connections with Arabia
Sacred Places
Religious Installations at Nabataean Sites
Religious Architecture
Excursus: Architectural and Related Terms
The Nabataean God and Goddess
The Nabataean Conception of the Gods
Dushara, the Nabataean God
Dushara’s Assimilation to Non-Nabataean Deities
The Nabataean Goddess: Allat, al-Uzza
Other Deities Worshipped by the Nabataeans
Kutba and Al-Kutba
Deities of Regional Importance
Foreign Goddesses
Evidence of Other Deities
The Protective Deities
Images and Rituals
Objects of Worship
Sacred Times and Persons
Private Cults
Religious Formulae
The World of Nabataean Religion
A Desert Tradition?
Aniconism
Emergent Monotheism
Nabataean Religion in the pre-Islamic Context