

Preface	p. v
About the Authors	p. xviii
Introduction	p. 1
Internationalization of Competition Laws: Levels of Diversities	p. 3
The Issue	p. 3
The ICN and Divergences in the Notification of Mergers	p. 4
Levels of Divergences	p. 4
Rules Aimed against Clear Anticompetitive Behavior	p. 5
Rules Resulting from Specific Views of Competition Policy	p. 5
Rules Which Reflect Conflicting Policies, in Particular Political Interests	p. 6
Rules of Enforcement Policies and Sanctions	p. 7
Rules Related to National Cultures and Traditions	p. 8
Conclusions	p. 9
References	p. 10
Speeches by Representatives of Foreign Competition Authorities	p. 11
Competition, Trade and Development Before and After Cancun	p. 13
Cases of International Cartels	p. 13
Cement in Egypt	p. 13
The Aluminum cartel	p. 15
The heavy electrical equipment cartel	p. 17
How can Egypt deal with these cases	p. 17
The Importance of Transnational Anti-competitive Practices for Developing Countries	p. 18
Two Approaches to the Problem of Externalities Due to International Anti-competitive Practices	p. 20
Possible Remedies	p. 22
The State of Play before Cancun	p. 26
The Cancun Ministerial Conference	p. 29
Conclusion	p. 33
Regional Cooperation Between Competition Authorities	p. 37
Problematics	p. 37
Forms of cooperation	p. 38
Institutional Cooperation	p. 39
Case-specific Cooperation	p. 39
Regional Cooperation as a Catalyst	p. 40
Closing Remark	p. 41
Canadian Perspectives on International Competition Cooperation	p. 43
Introduction	p. 43
Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)	p. 44
The International Competition Network (ICN)	p. 45
Cooperation through Bilateral Arrangements	p. 46
Merger Review	p. 47

Anti-Cartel Activity	p. 47
Conclusion	p. 48
Current Development of Competition Law and Policy in Indonesia	p. 49
Introduction	p. 49
Trend in Competition Law and Policy in Indonesia	p. 50
Implementation of Competition Law	p. 54
Conclusion	p. 56
References	p. 57
Globalization and the Development of Competition Framework	p. 59
Globalization and the Competition Analytical Framework: Some Mexican Experiences	p. 61
General Relationships between Globalization and Economic Policy	p. 62
Globalization and the Competition Analytical Framework	p. 62
General Characteristics of the Relevant Market	p. 65
Method used by some competition authorities to determine the relevant market	p. 66
An alternative method to determine relevant markets	p. 68
Geographical dimension of the relevant market	p. 70
Concentration Analysis (Concentration Indexes)	p. 71
Limitations of the concentration indexes	p. 71
Market shares for the computation of concentration indexes	p. 72
Concentration indexes used by the Mexican authority	p. 72
The Herfindahl index	p. 73
The Dominance index	p. 73
Incomplete information	p. 73
Index thresholds for merger analyses	p. 74
Exceptions to the thresholds	p. 74
Advantages of the dominance index	p. 74
Final Remark	p. 75
Competition Policy as Welfare-Enhancing Complement to Trade Liberalization: A United States Perspective	p. 77
Introduction	p. 77
Antitrust and Trade Policy	p. 78
International Antitrust: Growth and Harmonization	p. 80
Conclusion	p. 88
Globalization and Development of Competition Policy in the Russian Federation	p. 89
Refreshed Approaches to the Development of Global Competition Framework	p. 93
Introduction	p. 93
Some Background of the Efforts toward Establishing a Multilateral Competition Framework under the WTO	p. 94
Previous Approaches and Thoughts on the Interactions between Trade and Competition Policy	p. 96
The Whys and Wherefores for the Differences	p. 96
Basic Ideas of Alternative Approaches	p. 99

To consider giving up the idea of a single competition agreement	p. 99
To cope only with trade related aspect of competition matters	p. 101
To promote some approaches and to establish "Understandings" or "Decisions" in some areas	p. 101
To continue sectoral approach used under the GATS	p. 101
To consider soft rules	p. 102
To expand the prevention of abuse of monopolies under the GATS to GATT and TRIPS Agreement	p. 102
To include positive comity provisions under the GATT and TRIPS Agreement	p. 104
To provide incentives through authorizations	p. 105
Concluding Remarks	p. 106
Competition Framework for Technological Innovation	p. 107
Intellectual Property Rights and Competition Law - Making Them Co-Exist	p. 109
Introduction	p. 109
Intellectual Property Rights and Competition Law	p. 110
Australian Intellectual Property Policy Issues	p. 111
Australia Competition Law and the Role of the ACCC	p. 112
Intellectual Property Rights and the TPA	p. 112
Review of Australian Intellectual Property and Competition Law	p. 113
Refining the Exemption Provisions Section 51(3) of the Trade Practices Act	p. 114
Copyright Collecting Societies	p. 115
Parallel Imports	p. 116
Changes to the Law	p. 117
Parallel importing of sound recordings	p. 117
Court cases	p. 117
Price surveys	p. 119
Parallel imports of books and computer software	p. 120
Books	p. 121
Computer software	p. 122
Regional playback control systems	p. 122
Court case	p. 124
Conclusions	p. 124
International Guidelines on Intellectual Property Licensing	p. 125
Australasian Performing Rights Association	p. 128
Patents and Standards	p. 131
Introduction	p. 131
Standards, Standard Setting and Competition	p. 132
Standards	p. 132
The effect of standards	p. 132
Standard Setting Organizations (SSOs)	p. 133
Standard Setting	p. 133
Patents and Competition	p. 134

Patents	p. 134
The relationship between intellectual property and antitrust today	p. 135
Standard Setting Policies and Patents	p. 138
Conduct by SSOs	p. 138
Conduct by Patentees	p. 141
Future Course of Action	p. 144
For SSOs	p. 144
For competition authorities	p. 145
For the legislature	p. 145
Policy Issues in Efficient Collaboration Through a Patent Pool	p. 147
Summary	p. 147
Introduction	p. 147
Major Structural Features of Recent Patent Pools	p. 148
Standard Bodies and Patent Pools	p. 149
Constraints on Efficient Collaboration in Complementary Patents	p. 150
Policy Issues for Efficient Collaboration	p. 152
Ground for policy interventions	p. 152
Standard policy	p. 153
Competition and IPR policy toward an outsider	p. 153
Reference	p. 154
A Discussion of the Relationship Between the Patent Law and the Fair Trade Law in Taiwan with a Review of the Philips CD-R Decisions	p. 155
Introduction	p. 155
Relevant Regulations in Taiwan	p. 156
The Exception under Article 45 of Fair Trade Law	p. 156
Taiwan's Rules for Review of Technology Licensing Arrangement Cases by the Fair Trade Commission	p. 157
Examples of provisions which are NOT in violation of the Law	p. 157
Examples of provisions which ARE in violation of the Law	p. 159
Examples of provisions which MAY be in violation of the Law	p. 160
Philips Electronics et al	p. 161
Facts	p. 161
Taiwan's FTC Philips decisions	p. 161
Relevant issues	p. 162
Relevant Markets for CD-R Technologies	p. 163
Goods markets, technology markets, and innovation markets	p. 163
Markets for CD-R	p. 163
The Patent Pool as a Special Form of Patent Licensing	p. 164
The Treatment of Patent Pools under the Fair Trade Law	p. 165
The U.S. Regulations Concerning Patent Pools	p. 165
Patent pools and market power	p. 166
The Effect of closed patent pools on competition	p. 167

Patent pools involving technologies concerning standard specifications and the effect on competition	p. 167
Patent Pools and Concerted Actions	p. 168
Concerted actions under Taiwan's Fair Trade Law	p. 169
Determining whether enterprises are in horizontal competitive relationship with one another	p. 170
Concerted actions restricting business activities	p. 172
Patent Pools and the Abuse of Market Power	p. 172
Determining monopoly status	p. 173
Abuse of market power	p. 174
Conclusion	p. 174
Technological Innovation, the Knowledge-Based Economy and Competition Policy	p. 177
Introduction	p. 177
Characteristics of a Knowledge-based Economy's Business Development and Market Competition	p. 178
Increase in enterprise size	p. 179
Collaboration among enterprises	p. 179
Virtual enterprises	p. 180
Shortening the business and product life-span cycles	p. 180
Fuzzy and boundless market	p. 181
Challenges and Responses to Competition Policy	p. 181
Monopolies	p. 181
Mergers	p. 184
Concerted actions	p. 187
Unfair competition	p. 190
Corresponding Actions of the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission in the Era of the Knowledge-Based Economy	p. 192
Background to the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission	p. 192
Carrying out the "Building a Fair Competitive Environment for the Knowledge-Based Economy" project	p. 194
Reform of merger controls to enhance enterprise competitiveness	p. 195
Strengthening cooperation with related institutions to protect intellectual property	p. 198
Promotion of the concept of fair trade to establish the culture of competition	p. 198
Conclusion	p. 199
References	p. 201
Competition Framework for Financial Reform	p. 203
Korea's Competition Framework in the Financial Industry	p. 205
Introduction	p. 205
Progress of the Korean Financial Industry	p. 206
Growth-oriented Financial System	p. 206
Financial deregulation	p. 207
Structural reform	p. 208

Applying the Competition Law in the Financial Sector	p. 208
Expanding the application of the competition law	p. 208
Competition law enforcement in the financial sector	p. 210
M&A; in Banking Industry	p. 212
Situation	p. 212
Procedure of M&A; notification and review	p. 213
Investigation of the bank M&A;	p. 214
Definition of the relevant market	p. 214
Analyzing the adverse competitive effects	p. 216
Efficiency	p. 219
Conclusion	p. 220
References	p. 220
Taiwan's Financial Reforms and Competition	p. 223
Introduction	p. 223
Analysis of Major Financial Issues in Taiwan	p. 224
Over competition resulting in low market shares	p. 224
Less profit due to increased market competition	p. 225
Poor general economic climate affects credits and asset quality	p. 225
Rise of financial groups poses challenges to financial supervision	p. 225
Financial Reform Legislation	p. 226
Formulation of the Law Governing Merger of Financial Institutions	p. 226
Promulgation of the Financial Holding Company Law	p. 228
Issues Relating to Competition Law	p. 229
Principles governing threshold and review of mergers of Financial Institutions in Taiwan	p. 229
Financial Holding Companies and the filing for merger	p. 231
Confidentiality measures and disclosure of trade information	p. 231
Regulations on cross selling	p. 232
Issues on Financial innovation and tie-in	p. 233
Money management account (MMA)	p. 233
Trust and insurance funds	p. 234
Are the MMA and trust insurance funds tie-ins prohibited by the Fair Trade Law?	p. 235
Establishing a fair competition environment between financial subsidiaries under the financial holding company (FHC) structure and the non-FHCs structured financial institutions	p. 237
Conclusion	p. 238
Competition Framework for Developing Economies and Technical Assistance	p. 239
A Competition Framework for Developing Economies and Technical Assistance	p. 241
Introduction	p. 241
Why OECD Countries are Embracing Increased Competition and More Efficient and Flexible Regulation	p. 242
Competition and Efficiency as a Coherent Framework for All Economic and Regulatory Policy Making	p. 247

Striking the Right Balance between Competition and Regulation	p. 248
General suggestions	p. 248
Getting the right structure	p. 249
Establishing the right rules	p. 249
Creating the right institutions	p. 250
Building Capacity to Pursue a Strong Competition Policy	p. 252
Building a competition culture	p. 252
Creating an effective competition law enforcement regime	p. 253
Cooperation and capacity building	p. 254
Conclusion	p. 255
OECD Policy Recommendations on Regulatory Reform	p. 255
APEC Principles to Enhance Competition and Regulatory Reform	p. 258
Reconciling Competition Policy with Development Policies: The Case of Malaysia	p. 261
Introduction	p. 261
Reconciling Competition Policy and Development Policies	p. 262
Characteristics of the Malaysian Economy	p. 263
Small economy	p. 263
Regional Separation and disparity	p. 263
Open economy	p. 263
Market structure	p. 264
Development Policies in Malaysia	p. 264
Industrial policy	p. 264
Trade policy	p. 264
Privatization policy	p. 264
Socio Economic Policy	p. 265
Formulating A Competition Policy Framework for Malaysia	p. 266
Objectives of the Fair Trade Practices Policy	p. 266
Scope of the Fair Trade Practices Policy	p. 266
Content of the Fair Trade Practices Policy	p. 266
Institutions of the Fair Trade Practices Policy	p. 267
Conclusions	p. 268
Competition Law in Indonesia: Framework and Technical Assistance	p. 269
Introduction	p. 269
Framework	p. 270
Goals	p. 270
Coverage	p. 270
Market power and standard of violation	p. 271
Exceptions	p. 271
Agency: the KPPU	p. 271
The police and public prosecutor	p. 272
The court	p. 272

Time limit	p. 272
Technical Assistance (TA)	p. 273
Conclusion	p. 275
Roundtable Discussion	p. 277
Abbreviations	p. 303
Table of Cases	p. 307
Table of Treaties, Statutes, Codes and Laws	p. 309
Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.	