Introduction : the European constitution and national constitutions in the context of 'post-national constitutionalism' p. 1
Ratification of the constitutional treaty and the impact on national constitutions p. 15
Ratification of the European constitution in Lithuania and its impact on the national constitutional system p. 17
Ratification of the European constitution in Hungary : problems and challenges p. 29
The ratification of the European constitutional treaty in Italy p. 39
Spain's ratification of the treaty establishing a constitution for Europe : prior constitutional review, referendum and parliamentary approval p. 45
Germany and the EU constitutional treaty p. 57
Belgium : the lock-through system p. 67
Ratification of the European constitution in Estonia : a new constitution for Estonia? p. 79
The European constitution in the far north, in a country called Suomi p. 89
Obstacles to the ratification of the constitutional treaty and issues for national constitutions p. 101
French reactions to the treaty establishing a constitution for Europe : from constitutional welcome to popular rejection p. 103
The Dutch constitution, the European constitution and the referendum in the Netherlands p. 113
Adjournment of the ratification of the constitutional treaty : wait and see? p. 125
The United Kingdom : a Tragi-comedy in three acts p. 127
Ratification of the European constitution - implications for Ireland p. 137
Denmark's waning constitutionalism and article 20 of the constitution on transfer of sovereignty p. 149
Ratification without debate and debate without ratification : the European constitution in Slovakia and the Czech Republic p. 157
The Polish constitution, the European constitutional treaty and the principle of supremacy p. 171
Sweden's possible ratification of the EU constitution : a case-study of 'wait and see' p. 183
A view from a candidate country : implications for Croatia of (non) ratification of the treaty establishing a constitution for Europe p. 189
Ratification in light of the nature and content of the constitutional treaty and the instrument of referendum p. 201
The treaty establishing a constitution for Europe : some general reflections on its character and prospects for ratification p. 203
Institutional changes in the constitutional treaty - a reason for its rejection? p. 215
The European constitution and the role of national parliaments : hard law language, soft content p. 223
The European constitution and the role of national constitutional courts p. 235
Reconciling widening and deepening : enlargement as a vehicle to break the union's constitutional deadlock p. 249
National referendums in the process of European integration : time for change p. 261
Electorates v. politicians : the 2005 French and Dutch referendums on the EU constitutional treaty p. 273