Handbook of Drug Therapy in Liver and Kidney Disease

Edited by

Robert W. Schrier, M.D.
Professor and Chairman, Department of Medicine, University of Colorado School of Medicine, Denver

John G. Gambertoglio, Pharm. D.
Professor of Pharmacy and Medicine, University of California, San Francisco, Schools of Pharmacy and Medicine, San Francisco

With Appendix by

Francesca T. Aweeka, Pharm. D.
Assistant Clinical Professor of Pharmacy, University of California, San Francisco, School of Pharmacy, San Francisco; Clinical Pharmacist, Kidney Transplant Unit, Department of Surgery, University of California, San Francisco

Little, Brown and Company
Boston/Toronto/London
Contents

Contributing Authors ix
Preface xi
1. Altering Drug Dose 1
   Thomas A. Golper and William M. Bennett
2. Antimicrobial Agents 14
   David M. Melikian and John F. Flaherty
3. Analgesics and Sedatives-Hypnotics 46
   David T. Lowenthal and Dzvinka Kobasa
4. Antihypertensive Drugs 73
   Michael E. Ullian and Stuart L. Linas
5. Diuretic Agents 87
   Mark Dillingham
6. Antiarrhythmic Drugs 107
   David E. Mann
7. Inotropic and Vasodilator Agents 127
   David T. Lowenthal and Henry Wu
8. Antirheumatic Drugs 144
   Catherine E. Harmon and James C. Steigerwald
9. Chemotherapy Drugs 156
   Clinton F. Stewart, Ronald A. Fleming, and
   Timothy Madden
10. Immunosuppressive Agents 184
    Francesca T. Aweeka and Marvin R. Garovoy
11. Neuropsychiatric Drugs 207
    Roger M. Lauer, John F. Flaherty, and John G.
    Gambertoglio
12. Drug-Induced Liver Disease 242
    Joel S. Levine
13. Drug-Induced Kidney Disease 257
    William L. Henrich and Robert E. Cronin
14. Drug-Induced Electrolyte Disorders 272
    Stephen P. Kelleher
Appendix Drug Reference Table 285
Francesca T. Aweeka
Index 372