Pharmaceuticals and Health in the Third World

Edited by
SURENDRA J. PATEL
Contents

Editor's Introduction
SURENDRRA J. PATEL 165

PART ONE: Review of Selected Global Issues

Major Issues Concerning Pharmaceutical Policies in the Third World
AURELIE VON WARTENSLEBEN 169

Essential Drugs for the Third World
VITTORIO FATTORUSSO 177

Double Deprivation: Public and Private Drug Distribution from the Perspective of the Third World Poor
DIANNA MELROSE 181

Patents and Trademarks in Pharmaceuticals
DANIEL CHUDNOVSKY 187

Drug Costs in Developing Countries and Policies to Reduce Them
MAHESH S. PATEL 195

PART TWO: National Approaches to Critical Issues

Drug Selection: Mozambique
CARLOS MARZAGÃO and MALCOLM SEGALL 205

International Drug Procurement and Market Intelligence: Cuba
LUIS R. CAPÓ 217

Drug Control: India
S. S. GOTHOSKAR 223

Drug and Therapeutics Committees and Information Pharmacy Services: The United Kingdom
C. F. GEORGE and D. E. HANDS 229

National Production of Drugs: Egypt
ESSAM E. GALAL 237

Research and Development in Pharmaceuticals: Mexico
MIGUEL S. WIONCZEK 243

Report of the Expert Committee for Drugs — Bangladesh
251
PART THREE: The Emerging Responses to the Challenges

Pharmaceuticals in the Third World: The Problem from the Suppliers’ Point of View
S. MICHAEL PERETZ 259

The Right Pharmaceuticals at the Right Prices: Consumer Perspectives
ANWAR FAZAL 265

Cooperation among National Drug Manufacturers: Asociación Latinoamericana de Industrias Farmacéuticas (ALIFAR)
EDUARDO WHITE 271

The Main Lines of Cooperation among Developing Countries in Pharmaceuticals
KUMARIAH BALASUBRAMANIAM 281

PART FOUR: Selected Essential Documents

Selected Essential Documents: A Note
GLORIA-VERONICA KOCH 289

Special Resolutions on Pharmaceuticals by the Non-Aligned Countries (1976 and 1979) 291

Recommendations of the Inter-Agency Task Force on Pharmaceuticals (1979) 293

WHO: Revised Model List of Essential Drugs (1979) 297

The Planning of Pharmaceutical Production (1980) 309

Index 329