Clinical and Social Pharmacology: Postmarketing Period

José L. Alloza (Ed.)
Contents

Preface
L. Lasagna (Rochester, N.Y., USA) 9

Section I
Issues in post-marketing surveillance

Conceptual remarks on post-marketing drug surveillance
L. Lasagna (Rochester, N.Y., USA) 11

Post-marketing surveillance: A description of the U.S. approach and some considerations for a general program of post-marketing surveillance
J. K. Jones (Rockville, Md., USA) 14

The practicing physician and post-marketing surveillance
J. A. Bannon, J. J. Schrogie, G. T. Foradori (Philadelphia, Pa., USA) 25

Epidemiological drug surveys in the ambulatory care environment
J. L. Alloza, J. A. Salvá (Barcelona, Spain) 38

Section II
Techniques to support rational drug therapy

Drug utilization review: guidelines for program development
T. D. Rucker (Chicago, Ill., USA) 57

A rational patient package insert: nature, notions and needs
P. Joubert (Medunsa, Rep. South Africa) 66

Drug Formularies: a conceptual and administrative perspective
T. D. Rucker (Chicago, Ill., USA) 76
Drug information supplied in four national compendia:
a comparative study
J. L. Alloza, L. Lasagna (Barcelona, Spain/Rochester, N.Y., USA) 85

Drugs and pregnancy: documentation, evaluation and recommendations
R. K. Miller (Rochester, N.Y., USA) 102

Abuse of prescription drugs: State of California Medicaid drug claim analysis
R. F. Maronde (Los Angeles, Ca., USA) 114

Undertreatment: Causes and Cures
M. Weintraub (Rochester, N.Y., USA) 123

Section III
Integrating social endeavours

Towards social pharmacology
J. Venulet (Basle, Switzerland) 129

Notes on the future of clinical drug evaluation
S. Garattini, G. Tognoni (Milan, Italy) 140

Drug development and regulation in the United States: Prospects for shortening development time by concurrent review and post-marketing surveillance
W. M. Wardell, N. Mattison (Rochester, N.Y., USA) 152

The role of the pharmacist in the ambulatory environment
in the USA
A. Wertheimer, J. Serradell (Minneapolis, Minn., USA) 161

Hospital Pharmacy in Spain
J. M. Sune-Arbussa (Barcelona, Spain) 169