KEYGUIDE TO INFORMATION SOURCES IN Pharmacy

Barry Strickland-Hodge, Michael H. Jepson and Bruce J. Reid
Contents

Preface ix

PART I Survey of Pharmacy and Its Information Sources

1 The History and Scope of Pharmacy 3
   1.1 Historical introduction 3
   1.2 The scope of pharmacy today 8

2 Pharmacy Libraries 22
   2.1 Pharmacy libraries in the U.K. 22
   2.2 Libraries in other countries 23
   2.3 Classification schemes and subject headings used in libraries 24

3 Finding Out about Pharmacy 33
   3.1 Directories 33
   3.2 Trade literature and trade directories 35
   3.3 Literature guides 36
   3.4 Dictionaries 37
   3.5 Encyclopaedias 37
   3.6 Bibliographies 38
   3.7 Comprehensive treatises 39
CONTENTS

3.8 Textbooks and monographs 40
3.9 Handbooks and databooks 40
3.10 Career guides 42
3.11 Standards 42
3.12 Pharmacopoeias, drug indexes and compendia 42
3.13 Government publications and technical data 44

4 Keeping Up to Date with the Subject 47
4.1 Abstracts and indexes 47
4.2 Current awareness services 54
4.3 Tracing periodicals 54
4.4 Review serials 55
4.5 Periodicals 56
4.6 Conferences 57
4.7 Patents 58
4.8 Research directories, research in progress and theses 59
4.9 Online databases and directories 61

PART II Bibliography

Directories 67
Trade directories 70
Bibliographical guides 71
Dictionaries 72
Encyclopaedias 74
Bibliographies 75
Comprehensive treatises 77
Textbooks and monographs 78
Pharmacopoeias, drug indexes and compendia 105
Abstracting services 113
Indexing services 116
Current awareness services. 117
Lists of journals 118
Reviews 119
English-language journals 122
Journals in languages other than English 140
Conferences 146
Official publications and patents 148
Research directories 149
CONTENTS vii

Information on theses 151
Online database directories 152

PART III  Directory of Organizations

Directory of organizations 155

Index 163