Anthropologies of Medicine
A Colloquium on West European and North American Perspectives

On behalf of the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Ethnomedizin edited by Beatrix Pfleiderer and Gilles Bibeau
Anthropologies of Medicine

A Colloquium on West European and North American Perspectives

On behalf of the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Ethnomedizin edited by Beatrix Pfleiderer and Gilles Bibeau
Contents

Beatrix Pfleiderer: "About the Origins of this Volume" ................................................................. 7

Section 1: Culture-Specific Psychosomatic Paradigms

Thure v. Uexküll: "Are functional syndromes culture-bound?" .................................................. 13

Peter Hahn: "The Medical Anthropology of Viktor von Weizsäcker in the Present Clinical Context of Heidelberg" ................................................................. 23

Wolfgang Jacob: "Ethnomedical Fundaments in the Work of Viktor von Weizsäcker" ................................................................. 37

Thomas Ots: "Phenomenology of the Body: The Subject-Object Problem in Psychosomatic Medicine and the Role of traditional Medical Systems herein" ......................... 43

Mariella Pandolfi: "Memory within the Body: Women's Narrative and Identity in a Southern Italian Village" .................................................................................. 59

Section 2: Sociosomatics and Ethnicity

René Devisch: "The Symbolic and the Physiological: Epigastric Patients in Family Medicine in Flanders" .................................................................................. 69

Margaret Lock: "Nerves and Nostalgia: Greek-Canadian Immigrants and Medical Care in Québec" .................................................................................. 87

Beatrix Pfleiderer: "The Development and Change of Health Research among Migrant Workers in West-Germany: Ideologies and Practice between 1956 and 1986" .................................................................................. 105
Section 3: Local Cultures of Biomedicine

Mary Jo DelVecchio Good: "The Practice of Biomedicine and the Discourse on Hope: A Preliminary Investigation into the Culture of American Oncology" .......................... 121

Deborah R. Gordon: "Culture, Cancer, and Communication in Italy" .................................................. 137

Jutta Dornheim: "Images and Interpretations of Severe Illness: Ethnological Aspects of Dealing with Cancer" ........................................................................................................ 157

Allan Young: "Emil Kraepelin and the Origins of American Psychiatric Diagnosis" ...................... 175

Section 4: From Patients' Complaints to Cultural Narrative

Francis Zimmermann: "The Love-Lorn Consumptive: South Asian Ethnography and the Psychosomatic Paradigm" ........................................................................................................ 185

Paul U. Unschuld: "Traditional European and Chinese Definitions of Illness and Medical Practice" ......................................................................................................................... 197

Section 5: Medical Systems and Cultural Change: An Analysis of Facts and Theories

Gilles Bibeau: "The Hierarchies of Medicines: A Contextual Analysis of Schismogenic Processes" ................................................................................................................................. 207

Atwood D. Gaines: "Cultural Constructivism: Sickness Histories and the Understanding of Ethnomedicines beyond Critical Medical Anthropologies" ........................................ 221

Carol MacCormack: "Holistic Health and a Changing Western World View" ................................. 259

List of Contributors .................................................................................................................................... 275