THE ASPIRIN WARS
MONEY, MEDICINE, AND
100 YEARS OF RAMPANT COMPETITION

by CHARLES C. MANN
and MARK L. PLUMMER

ALFRED A. KNOPF NEW YORK 1991
CONTENTS

Prologue: "How on Earth Did All This Come About?" 3

PART ONE: "JUST A BUSINESSMAN" 13
1. "Unsurpassed by Any Other Drug" 15
2. "Rich Beyond the Dreams of Avarice" 32
3. "The Fake Bayer" 50
4. "Said Products" 64
5. "A Positive Mental Attitude Toward the Present Regime" 81
6. "Let Us Keep the Shirt Until It Is Absolutely Necessary to Take It Off" 93
7. "Force Majeure" 107

PART TWO: "POUNDING HAMMERS" 121
8. "I Am Not in the Jailbird Class" 123
9. "As Much Bite as a Canton-Flannel Dog" 138
10. "Fast, Fast, FAST Relief!" 151
12. "Let Your Rivals Pay Their Own Advertising Bills" 184
13. "Shame on You!" 198
CONTENTS

PART THREE: "BLUT, BLUT, VERFLUCHTES BLUT" 233

15. "Give No Deadly Drug to Any" 235
16. "Break Your Code" 255
17. "I Think I Know How Aspirin Works. Do You?" 272
18. "Who Is This Guy, Anyway?" 291
19. "Miracle Drug" 311

Epilogue: "The Economic Incentives" 325

A Note on Sources 341
Abbreviations 343
Notes 347
Bibliography 387
Acknowledgments 405
Index 407