Contents

List of contributors ix
List of invited discussants x

1. Problems and dependence: the history of two dimensions
   GRIFFITH EDWARDS 1

2. Temperance cultures: concern about alcohol problems in
   Nordic and English-speaking cultures
   HARRY G. LEVINE 15

3. Correlation and causality: notes on epistemological problems in substance abuse research
   OLE-JØRGEN SKOG 37

4. Problems and dependence: chalk and cheese or bread and butter?
   D. COLIN DRUMMOND 61

5. Substance-related problems in the context of international classificatory systems
   THOMAS F. BABOR 83

6. Drinking problems: the individual in social context
   NORMAN KREITMAN 99

7. The role of culture in the drug question
   GEOFFREY PEARSON 109

8. Detecting individual factors in substance abuse problems
   LEE ROBINS 133

9. Individual susceptibility to alcohol abuse and to ethanol toxicity
   TIMOTHY J. PETERS 151

10. Problem definition: the case of the benzodiazepines
    MALCOLM LADER 161

11. The problems perspective: implications for prevention policies
    REGINALD G. SMART 167
Contents

12. Treatment strategies within a problems framework
   D. COLIN DRUMMOND 179

13. The demands which the problem perspective sets for research
   MALCOLM LADER, GRIFFITH EDWARDS, and D. COLIN DRUMMOND 189

14. The meanings of problem: a debate around a problematic concept 199

Index 211