Lorenz Böllinger
(Ed.)

De-Americanizing Drug-Policy
The Search for Alternatives for failed Repression

PETER LANG
Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Bern • New York • Paris • Wien
CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 9

Harry G. LEVINE and Craig REINARMAN
From Prohibition to Regulation: Lessons from Alcohol Policy for Drug Policy  15

Craig REINARMAN and Harry G. LEVINE
The Construction of America's Crack Crisis  49

Diana R. GORDON
Drugs, Race, and the "Dangerous Classes": Policy Politics in American Drug Prohibition  89

Lynn ZIMMER
American Inner-Cities and Drug Policing: Strategies That Maximize Harm to Individuals and Communities  109

John P. MORGAN
Posions and Prohibitions: The Persistance of Folly  117

Otto JANSSEN
Normalization of the Drugs Problem: an Outline of the Dutch Drugs Policy  127

Mario LAP
About Netherweed and Coffeeshops. An Essay on Cannabis in Durch Society now and in the Future  137

Freek POLAK and Mario LAP
Response to the Report an 1992 by the INCB (International Narcotics Control Board)  151
Freek POLAK

The Medicalization of (Problematic) Intoxicant Use and the Medical Provision of Psychoactive Drugs 175

Peter COHEN

Re-thinking Drug Control Policy: Historical Perspectives and conceptual tools 189

Lorenz BÖLLINGER

German Drug Laws, Supra-national European Developments and the Question of Constitutionality 199

Ethan A. NADELMAN

Thinking Seriously About Alternatives to Drug Prohibition 215

About the Contributors 261