Tongan Herbal Medicine

Dr. W. Arthur Whistler

Botanist, National Tropical Botanical Garden

1992
CONTENTS

CHAPTER I. TRADITIONAL TONGAN MEDICINE . . . 1

INTRODUCTION ............................................. 1
The Islands ............................................. 1
The Culture ............................................. 1
The History ............................................. 3
THE LITERATURE ON TONGAN MEDICINE ............. 4
TONGAN MEDICINE IN ANCIENT TIMES ............... 7
The Causation of Illness ............................... 7
Medical Problems of the Ancient Tongans .......... 8
Medical Practices of the Priest-healers .......... 10
Medical Practices of the Lay-healers ............ 14
HERBAL MEDICINE .................................... 17
THE TRANSITION PERIOD ............................. 20

CHAPTER II. MODERN TONGAN MEDICINE . . . 24

HEALTH CARE IN TONGA TODAY ....................... 24
CONCEPTS OF SICKNESS AND HEALTH ............. 31
Surface Ailments: Hangatāmaki ................... 33
Boils and Carbuncles ............................... 33
Inflammations ........................................ 34
Skin Sores ........................................... 34
Mouth infections .................................... 34
Ailments of the Digestive Tract .................... 35
Physical Injuries: Fasi ............................ 35
Internal Ailments: Mahaki ......................... 36
Supernaturally Induced Ailments: Fakatevolo .... 38
CONTEMPORARY HERBAL MEDICINE ............... 41
The Selection of a Healer ......................... 41
The Diagnosis ...................................... 43
The Giving of Gifts .................................. 44
The Preparation of Medicine ...................... 44
Tongan Massage ...................................... 51
Treatment of Fakatevolo ......................... 53
CONCLUSIONS .......................................... 56
LIST OF FIGURES

1. Map of the Kingdom of Tonga.
2. Elephantiasis of a man's leg (Cook Islands).
3. Several talatala leaves are arranged in a stack in the hands.
4. The leaves are rolled into a cylinder.
5. The leaves are rubbed in the palms of the hands.
6. The leaf sap is dripped onto a wound.
7. A faito’o fefine treating an infant.
8. A pepa faito’o, a notebook of family remedies.
9. A faito’o tane who prepares bottled medicine for sale.
10. A young man sent to gather medicinal leaves
11. Bottles of vai kahi and vai kafo for sale in the marketplace.
12. A faito’o tane scraping medicinal tree bark.
14. Medicinal bag from the mesh of a coconut leafbase.
15. Medicinal bag being dipped into a water.
16. Sap from the bag being dripped into a boy's mouth.
17. Medicinal leaf sap being squeezed into a baby's mouth.
18. Medicinal leaves being rubbed directly onto the body.
19. A sty being treated with a gentle amoamo massage.
21. An ankle being massaged in a bowl of uhi leaf infusion.
22. A faito’o fasi wrapping an injured leg.
23. A steambath being administered to patient.