LOCAL LITERACIES

Reading and writing in one community

David Barton and Mary Hamilton

London and New York
CONTENTS

| List of asides                        | ix  |
| List of figures                      | xi  |
| Foreword by David Bloome             | xii |
| Preface                              | xvi |

PART I

1. Understanding literacy as social practice
   - Introduction 3
   - A social theory of literacy: practices and events 6
   - Studies of community literacy 13
   - Theorising local social relations 15
   - Theories of culture 18
   - The public narrative on literacy 20

2. Locating literacies in time and space:
   - (1) a history of literacy in Lancaster 23
     - A time and a place: Lancaster, England 23
     - William Stout of Lancaster, 1665–1752 24
     - The nineteenth century 27
     - History of education 32

3. Locating literacies in time and space:
   - (2) Lancaster today 36
     - Lancaster today 36
     - A social profile 38
     - The visual literacy environment 40
     - Contemporary institutions of literacy 43
     - A sense of place 46
     - Springside 47
     - 1990 and the 1990s 55
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Everyday reading 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Values, morals and censorship 158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Literacy difficulties in daily life 159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Books in people's lives 162</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

10 Everyday literacies: (2) the patterning of practices 170

- The gendering of home practices 170
- Home numeracy practices 176
- Multilingual literacies at home 182

11 Home, learning and education 188

- Borderlands 188
- Learning in the home 190
- Literacy, home and school 190
- Relations with education 198

12 The web of literacies in local organisations 208

- Local groups and organisations 208
- The Allotment Association 213
- Literacy in social participation: the annual general meeting 214
- Literacy in social action: the allotments fight 217
- The Housing Action Project and the residents' association 222
- Literacies in groups 224

13 Becoming expert: literacy and sense making 231

- Introduction 231
- Becoming expert 231
- Vernacular knowledge 241

14 Vernacular literacies 247

- Vernacular practices 247
- Defining vernacular literacies 251
- The texts of everyday life 257
- Vernacular practices in a time of change 259

15 Afterword 263
APPENDICES

1 People interviewed in the Literacy in the Community project 269
2 Topics covered in the Literacy in the Community interview 274
3 Metaphors for the research process 275
4 Research into practice 279

Bibliography 284
Index of informants 293
Index 295