Foreword (contributed by D. Ganderton, OBE)  xi
Preface  xiii

1 Product Formulation and Artificial Intelligence  1
  1.1 Product Innovation and Life Cycle  1
  1.2 The Formulation Process  2
  1.3 Artificial Intelligence  6
   References  8

2 Expert Systems Fundamentals  9
  2.1 Definition and Structure  9
  2.2 Knowledge Engineering  12
  2.3 Development Tools  22
   References  25

3 Product Formulation Expert System (PFES) (contributed by
   P. Bentley, Logica UK Ltd)  27
  3.1 Introduction  27
  3.2 History  27
  3.3 Overview  28
  3.4 Features  30
  3.5 Knowledge Structure  32
  3.6 Functionality  36
  3.7 Support for Formulation Development Process  37
  3.8 Complex Formulations  38
  3.9 Development Life Cycle  39
  3.10 Conclusion  40
   References  41
Contents

4 Rule Induction and Case-Based Reasoning 43
4.1 Introduction 43
4.2 Rule Induction 43
4.3 Case-Based Reasoning 47
References 52

5 Neural Networks, Genetic Algorithms and Fuzzy Logic 55
5.1 Introduction 55
5.2 Neural Networks 55
5.3 Genetic Algorithms 66
5.4 Fuzzy Logic 71
5.5 Conclusion 74
References 74

6 The CAD/Chem Formulation Design and Optimisation Program (contributed by E.A. Colbourn, Oxford Materials Ltd) 77
6.1 Introduction 77
6.2 Information Flow 78
6.3 Data 78
6.4 Using the Model 87
6.5 Sensitivity Analysis 92
6.6 Graphical Display Reports 92
6.7 Conclusion 94
References 94

7 Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining 95
7.1 Introduction 95
7.2 Process and Technologies 95
7.3 Tools 97
7.4 Applications 99
7.5 Conclusion 101
References 101

8 Applications of Expert Systems – Non-Pharmaceutical 103
8.1 Introduction 103
8.2 Agrochemicals 103
8.3 Aluminium Alloys 111
8.4 Inks 113
8.5 Lubricating Oils 116
8.6 Propellants 119
8.7 Suncare Products 120
8.8 Textile Finishing 121
8.9 Vinyl Coatings 122
8.10 Vinyl Pipes 123
8.11 Wool Dyeing 125
8.12 Szechwan Cooking 127
8.13 Conclusion 129
