ECSTASY: USE AND PREVENTION

EMPIRICAL RESEARCH RESULTS AND GUIDELINES

Documentation of a FCHE status seminar held in Bad Honnef from 15 to 17 September 1997

Federal Centre for Health Education (FCHE)
Cologne, 1998
CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Some Notes on this Documentation

1.2. Welcoming Address of the Federal Government Commissioner for Drugs
   Eduard Lintner, Federal Government Commissioner for Drugs and Parliamentary State Secretary in the Federal Ministry of the Interior

1.3. What is the Purpose of this Seminar?
   Starting Point – Fundamental Principles – Expectations
   Jürgen Töppich

2. STARTING AT THE END –
   THE RESULTS OF THE SEMINAR

2.1. Hopes Fulfilled
   Summarising Words in the Concluding Discussion
   Jürgen Töppich

2.2. Guidelines for Prevention – An Introduction
   Guido Nöcker

2.3. Recommendations for the Prevention of the Use of Ecstasy: A Supplement to the FCHE Guidelines on Drug Prevention
   Results of the Coordination Process

2.4. This is Important to Us!
   A Review of the Key Topics
2.5. The Fundamental Principles

3. SUBSTANCE-SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON ECSTASY

3.1. Ecstasy: The Status Quo of the Situation in Pharmacological/Medical Research
Karl-Artur Kovar

4. EPIDEMIOLOGICAL DATA ON THE USE OF ECSTASY AND OTHER DRUGS

4.1. The Use of Ecstasy – An Empirical Study of the Patterns and Psychosocial Effects of Ecstasy Use
Gerd Rakete and Udo Flüsmeier

4.2. Drug Affinity of Young People in the Techno-Party Scene
H. Peter Tossmann, SPI-Forschung gGmbH, Berlin

4.3. Representative Survey of Members of the Techno Scene in Bavaria. Drug Use, Risk Awareness and Recreational Behaviour
Christoph Kröger, Gerhard Bühringer and Jutta Künzel

4.4. Increase in the Use of Ecstasy and Hallucinogens: Confirmation from the EDSP Study
Peter Schuster

4.5. The Use of Amphetamines and Ecstasy in the Adult Population (Federal Study)
Ludwig Kraus and Rita Bauernfeind
4.6. Ecstasy Abuse from the Point of View of the Federal Office of Criminal Investigation
Andreas Maack and Rainer Dahlenburg

4.7. New Trends in Synthetic Drugs in Europe
Margareta Nilson

PUBLIC COMMUNICATION ABOUT ECSTASY

Jens Wilhelm

EVALUATED PREVENTIVE MEASURES

6.1. MIND ZONE – Alternative Approaches to Prevention
Stefan Nitschke

6.2. Evaluation of the MIND ZONE Prevention Project
Jutta Künzel, Christoph Kröger and Gerhard Bühringer

6.3. Presentation of the European Ecstasy Pilot Project and Results of Evaluation (Lifeline Project Manchester, Jellinek Centre Amsterdam and Büro für Suchtprävention Hamburg)
Manfred Rabes and Reiner Domes

6.4. In-school Prevention of the Use of Party Drugs – Initial Experience and Evaluation Results
Marcus Freitag
LAST, BUT NOT LEAST

7.1. Synthetic Drugs – International Chronology
7.2. References for the Papers and Further Reading
7.3. The Seminar Participants
7.4. Contact Addresses