SHAKESPEARE'S LATE PLAYS
New Readings

EDITED BY JENNIFER RICHARDS
AND JAMES KNOWLES

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY PRESS
INTRODUCTION: SHAKESPEARE'S LATE PLAYS

Jennifer Richards and James Knowles

PART I
MATERNITY AND MANLINESS

1 'Gracious be the issue': maternity and narrative in Shakespeare's late plays
Helen Hackett

2 'Thou hast made me now a man': reforming man(ner)liness in Henry VIII
Gordon McMullan

3 'Near akin': the trials of friendship in The Two Noble Kinsmen
Alan Stewart
CONTENTS

PART II
ART, AESTHETICS AND SOCIETY

4 Social decorum in The Winter's Tale
Jennifer Richards 75

5 Pericles and the Pox
Margaret Healy 92

6 Insubstantial pageants: The Tempest and masquing culture
James Knowles 108

7 ‘An art lawful as eating’? Magic in The Tempest and The Winter's Tale
Gareth Roberts 126

PART III
HISTORY AND INTERPRETATION

8 Postcolonial Shakespeare: British identity formation and Cymbeline
Willy Maley 145

9 History and judgement in Henry VIII
Thomas Healy 158

10 ‘To write and read / Be henceforth treacherous’: Cymbeline and the problem of interpretation
Alison Thorne 176

PART IV
ENDINGS AND BEGINNINGS

11 Unseasonable laughter: the context of Cardenio
Richard Wilson 193

12 Tears at the wedding: Shakespeare’s last phase
Julia Briggs 210

Bibliography 228
Index 247

vi