Shakespeare's Kings

JOHN JULIUS NORWICH

VIKING
Table of Contents

List of Illustrations  xvi
Family Trees  xx
Maps  xxiii
Royal Emblems  xxv
Introduction  i

1. Edward III and the Black Prince [1337–1377]

Murder of Edward II · Fate of Gaveston · Succession of Edward III · His dominions · Death of Charles IV · Edward’s claim to France · French counter-claim · Feudality and vassalage · Hundred Years War begins  15
Opening of Edward III · Acts I and II  18
Edward’s invasion · Battle of Sluys  21
Sluys in Edward III  23
Truce of Espléchin · Second invasion, 1346 · Battle of Crécy  25
Crécy in Edward III  30
Siege of Calais  33
Battle of Poitiers  36
Calais and Poitiers in Edward III · End of play  39
Last years of Edward’s reign · Black Prince at Bordeaux · Najera · Sickness and death of Prince · Death of Edward  44

2. The Young Richard [1377–1381]

Children of Edward III · Question of succession · Richard’s coronation  51
Richard’s birth · His mother, the Fair Maid of Kent · His father, the Black Prince · His uncle, John of Gaunt · Destruction of Gaunt’s palace by mob after trial of Wycliffe · Peace between Gaunt and Londoners made by Richard on accession  54
Shakespeare's Kings

3. Favourites and Appellants [1381–1388]

Marriage • Life at court • Food • Clothes • Portraits 69
Arrogance and irresponsibility • Favourites • Mowbray, de Vere, Burley • John of Gaunt • The Norwich Crusade 73
Latimer incident • Scottish expedition • Departure of John of Gaunt for Spain 77
Trouble with Parliament over Suffolk • Deputation by Gloucester and Bishop of Ely • Appointment of Commission • Progress to North • Judges find Commission illegal • Return to London 80
Gloucester, Arundel, Warwick defy King • Agreement at Westminster • King's bad faith • De Vere marches on London • Radcot Bridge • Appellants issue ultimatum • 84
'Merciless' Parliament • Executions • King's promise • Attempts to save his personal reputation 87

4. The King's Revenge [1388–1398]

Richard assumes personal responsibility for government • John of Gaunt • Results of his Spanish expedition • His return • Attempts to have Edward II canonized 95
Quarrel with Londoners • Risings in Cheshire • Death of Queen • First Irish expedition • Return of body of de Vere • Remarriage of John of Gaunt 97
Richard's marriage to Isabelle of France • Her coronation • January 1397 Parliament at Westminster • Haxey petition • Westminster Hall 100
Richard moves against Gloucester, Arundel, Warwick • Their condemnation at September Parliament • Sentences • New dukedoms • Shrewsbury Parliament • Bolingbroke accuses Mowbray 102
TABLE OF CONTENTS

5. The Triumph of Bolingbroke [1398–1400]

Opening of Richard II • Lists at Coventry • Sentences of exile • Expensive pardons and forced loans 111
Death of John of Gaunt • Shakespeare’s portrait of him • Confiscation of his estates • Increase of Richard’s megalomania • His departure for Ireland 115
Bolingbroke lands at Ravenscar • Submission of royalists • Richard returns from Ireland • His capture 117
Deposition and accession • Henry’s claim • Coronation • Recriminations 121
Shakespeare’s interpretation • Richard sent to Pontefract • Plot to reinstate him •
His fate • Henry’s reaction 124

6. King Henry IV Part I [1400–1403]

King Henry IV • His background and early travels • His problems: Parliament, France, Scotland, Wales • Scottish campaign • Glendower’s rebellion, Welsh campaign • Visit of Manuel Palaeologus • Return of Queen Isabelle to France 131
Marriage to Joan of Brittany • Shakespeare’s 1 Henry IV • Capture of Mortimer by Glendower • Second Welsh campaign • Homildon Hill • Quarrel with Hotspur over prisoners • Shakespeare’s treatment • Character of Hotspur 135
Falstaff/Oldcastle • Hal’s riotous living • His military record • Percy rebellion •
Battle of Shrewsbury 139
Shakespeare’s version of the rebellion and the preparations for the battle 144
Shakespeare’s battle 146

7. King Henry IV Part II [1403–1413]

Problems with Parliament • The French make trouble • New campaign against Glendower deflected against Northumberland • Rebellion of Earl Marshal and Archbishop of York • Their arrest • Fifth invasion of Wales • The King sickens 151
The King’s sickness • Growing responsibilities of Prince of Wales •
Tight-fistedness of Parliament • The French attack Bordeaux • Fall of Harlech ends Glendower’s rebellion • King’s health declines 155
Difficulty of Prince’s position • Burgundian and Orleans factions in France •
Prince sends army to Burgundy under Arundel • Henry rallies, dismisses Beauforts • Prince leaves for Midlands • King sends army under Clarence to help Armagnacs • Fiasco • Prince partly to blame; raises militia, which he brings to London 158

King's final seizure and death • His tomb 161

The play • What Shakespeare makes of King Henry • Compression of events • Sickness • Affair of Chief Justice • Treatment of Northumberland and of John of Lancaster • Crown and pillow incident • Act V 163

8. Harfleur and Agincourt [1413–1415]

Henry V • His coronation • The Lollards • Case of Sir John Oldcastle • St Giles's Fields 173

Henry's claim to throne of France • Beaufort's mission • Huge and unfulfillable demands 178

Preparations for war • The Southampton plot • The fleet sails • The siege of Harfleur 180

The march to Agincourt 184

The battle • The massacre of prisoners • Losses on each side • Celebrations in London • Henry's gloom 185

9. The End of the Adventure [1415–1422]

Death of Dauphin • Dorset's defeat at Valmont • French siege of Harfleur • Battle of the Seine • Visit of Emperor Sigismund to England • Alliance at Canterbury • Abortive conference in Calais 193

Preparations for new expedition • Capture of Caen and other cities • Another death of a Dauphin • Queen Isabella proclaims herself Regent, John the Fearless as Governor of France • Murder of Armagnac • Queen and Duke enter Paris, Dauphin flees • Siege and capture of Rouen 195

Meeting at Meulan with Queen and Duke • Capture of Pontoise • Meeting on bridge at Montereau • Murder of John the Fearless • Treaty of Troyes • Henry marries Katherine • Capture of Sens and Melun • Henry hangs Scots mercenaries • Other cruelties • Entry into Paris • Return to England 198

Defeat and death of Clarence at Beaugé • Henry's last campaign • His inhumanity increases • Sickness and death • His tomb • Fate of Katherine 200

xii
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>10. King Henry V [1414–1420]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chronological limitation of play • Assistance of Chorus in dating • Tennis balls incident, true or false? • Southampton plot • Sanity of Charles VI</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fluellen • Harfleur • Princess Katherine • Agincourt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Return to London • Reconciliation between French and English • Courtship and marriage</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>11. King Henry VI: His Childhood and Youth [1422–1445]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Henry's birth • Bedford, Gloucester, Beaufort • Hopelessness of the war • England's steady loss of support in France • Coronation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joan of Arc • Death of Salisbury • Battle of the Herrings • Capture of Joan of Arc • Her burning • Henry's coronation in Paris • Peace of Arras between France and Burgundy • Death of Bedford</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Character of Henry VI • Release of Charles of Orleans • Fall of Duke Humphrey • Rise of Suffolk • Margaret of Anjou • Her marriage to Henry</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>12. King Henry VI Part I [1422–1453]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Authorship • Fidelity to truth • Sources • Telescoping of time • Falstaff • Joan of Arc • Death of Salisbury • Introduction of Talbot • His fight with Joan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Act II • Unhistorical recovery of Orleans • Countess of Auvergne • Temple Garden scene • York's visit to the dying Mortimer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Act III • Beaufort–Gloucester feud • Building-up of Richard of York • Joan's capture of Rouen • Confused chronology • Talbot made Earl</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Act IV • Henry's French coronation • His division of the army in France • Death of Talbots • Act V • Exeter's surprise at Beaufort as Cardinal • Henry's projected marriage • Scenes with the Pucelle • Appearance of Margaret of Anjou • Peace</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Charles VII makes good use of truce • Arrest and death of Duke Humphrey • Death of Cardinal Beaufort • Suffolk assumes power • Richard of York appointed to Ireland • French war resumes under Somerset • English defeat at Formigny • Imprisonment of Suffolk • His death</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
SHAKESPEARE'S KINGS

Jack Cade's rebellion • York's return from Ireland • His first march on London • Somerset's claim to throne • Increasing York-Somerset hostility • York's second march on London • King promises Somerset's arrest • His breach of faith 257

Henry's illness and insanity • Birth of his son • Arrest of Somerset • York appointed Protector • Appoints Salisbury Chancellor • Henry recovers • York, Salisbury, Warwick withdraw to north • York's third march on London • First battle of St Albans 262

14. King Henry VI Part II [1441–1455]

Anjou and Maine • Confusion over Warwicks • Shakespeare extends Protectorate • Kingdom torn apart by factions 269

Eleanor Cobham • Her penance • Duke Humphrey's death 272

Blackening of Duke of York • Humphrey not murdered • No affair between Queen and Suffolk • Circumstances of death of Cardinal Beaufort • Suffolk's death • Cade's rebellion 274

York's return from Ireland • Telescoping time • York's behaviour at Blackheath • His children • St Albans 278

15. The Wars of the Roses [1455–1475]

Shakespeare's telescoping • Richard of York claims the throne • Battle of Wakefield • Mortimer's Cross • St Albans II • Edward proclaimed 283

Battle of Towton • Edward in the north • Margaret's foreign intrigues • Hedgeley Moor and Hexham 287

Marriage to Elizabeth Woodville • Warwick's reaction • Alliance with Clarence • Clarence marries Isabel Nevill • They march to London • Robin of Redesdale • Battle of Edgcote • Edward's captivity 290

His liberation • Welles rebellion • Battle of Lose-coat Field • Warwick and Clarence escape to France • They ask Louis XI for protection • Warwick's 'reconciliation' with Margaret of Anjou • He and Clarence return to England • Betrayal of Montagu • Edward flees to Holland • Henry VI reinstated • Edward lands at Ravenscar 294

Clarence betrays Warwick • Edward enters London and is recrowned • Battle of Barnet • Warwick's death • Margaret lands at Weymouth • Her arrival at Tewkesbury 299

Battle of Tewkesbury • Massacre • Fate of Edward, Prince of Wales • Fate of Margaret • Fate of Henry VI 302

xiv

Crimes of Lancaster expiated after Tewkesbury • Opening inaccuracies • Dramatization of Act of Accord • Battle of Wakefield 307

Act II • Mortimer's Cross, St Albans II, Towton • Presence/absence of George and Richard • Act III • Henry VI's wanderings • Warwick at French court, suing for hand of Bona • His return in rebellion in 1470 309

Act IV • Edward seeks opinion of marriage • Telescoping of Edward's capture and his flight to Holland • His landing at Ravenscar • London • Barnet • Tewkesbury • Death of Prince of Wales • Murder of Henry VI 313

Conclusion • Stress on Richard's villainy 317

17. King Edward V [1471–1483]

French expedition of 1475 • Rivalry between Clarence and Gloucester • Their contrasting appearances • Warwick's inheritance • Richard's marriage • Clarence becomes paranoid • His trial and death 321

Richard in the north • He occupies Edinburgh • Death of Edward IV • Power of Woodvilles • Richard and Buckingham act against them • Richard's seizure of Edward V on way to London • Execution of Rivers 324

Edward V and Richard enter London • Extracts Duke of York from sanctuary • Meeting of 13 June • Arrest and execution of Hastings 327

Sermon of Dr Shaa • Buckingham's speech at Guildhall • Petition to Richard to accept crown • He takes oath in Westminster Hall 330

Coronation • The Princes in the Tower 333

18. The Final Reckoning [1483–1485]

Triumphal progress through north • Buckingham's revolt • Role of Morton • Margaret Beaufort • Revolt ends in fiasco • Buckingham executed • Support grows for Richmond • Fugitive rebels join him at Rennes 339

Richard's anxieties • Begins to see Richmond as serious threat • Treaty of Pontefract with Brittany • Henry's escape into Anjou • Warm reception from French court • Arrival of Oxford • Affair at Hammes • Death of Queen • Richard considers marriage with Elizabeth of York • Denial at Clerkenwell 343

Henry's landing • His progress • Bosworth 347

After Bosworth • Fate of Richard's body 351

The two legends • Dating of the play 355
Acts I and II • Chronologies • Clarence’s death • Queens’ lamentations
   Undramatic treatment of Richard’s coup 357
Acts III and IV • Richard’s progress to the throne • His murder of the Princes 361
Bosworth 365

Epilogue 369
Chronological Table 375
Bibliography 379
Appendix: Shakespeare’s Edward III 383
Index 449