Holy and Noble Beasts
Encounters with Animals in Medieval Literature

DAVID SALTER

D. S. BREWER
Contents

List of Illustrations vi
Acknowledgements vii
Abbreviations viii
Introduction 1.

I. Return to Paradise: Animals in the Lives of the Saints

1. St Jerome and the Lion 11
2. The Patron Saint of Ecologists: St Francis and the Wolf of Gubbio 25
3. Dominion over Animals: The Taming of ‘Brother Ass’ 33
4. Reading the Book of Nature: St Francis, the Bible, and the Natural World 39

II. Knights and the Brute Creation: Nobility and Sanctity in Four Middle English Romances

5. Romance and Hagiography: The Vision of St Eustace and Sir Isumbras 55
6. Sir Gowther 71
7. Octavian 82
8. Sir Orfeo 96

III. Nature and Supernature: The Middle English Romances of Alexander the Great

9. Alexander: Romance and History 111
10. Alexander’s Miraculous Conception and Birth 123
11. The Wonders of the East 134

Conclusion: Representing Nature in Medieval Literature 147
Bibliography 150
Index 163