Contents

List of illustrations xii
Acknowledgements xvii

Introduction 1

Part I: Key Concepts 7

1 Meanings and media 9
   Semiotics 10
   Structuralism 12
   Denotation and connotation 15
   Different kinds of signs 17
   Debates 21
   References 22
   Further reading 23

Case study: Analysing images 24
   Advertising images 25
   Images from photojournalism 26
   Voices and sound images 27
   References 31

2 Narratives 32
   General theories of narrative 32
   Narration, story and plot 38
   Narratives in different media 41
   Institutions and narratives 1: broadcasting and soaps 42
   Institutions and narratives 2: the influence(s) of computer culture 43
   References 47
   Further reading 48
CONTENTS

Case study: Psycho and news narratives

- Synopsis .................................................. 49
- Psycho and narrative theories .................. 50
- Story and plot in Psycho ......................... 51
- Psycho as a cinematic narrative .............. 53
- References ............................................. 58
- Further reading ........................................ 58

3 ‘Genres’, and other classifications

- Television and cinema: economics and classification .......... 60
- Case study: Big Brother .................................. 61
- Censorship, art, reviewing ............................. 66
- Case study: The Silence of the Lambs .................. 69
- Genres and escapism .................................... 71
- The real and ‘verisimilitude’ ................................ 73
- Case study: Relating ‘11 September’ to action-entertainment escapism ............................................. 74
- Repertoires of elements ................................ 77
- References ............................................. 80
- Further reading ........................................ 81

Case study: Buffy the Vampire Slayer

- Buffy: ‘unique’ and ‘authored’? ....................... 82
- Buffy as cross-generic .................................. 83
- Horror, romance and scheduling ................... 86
- References ............................................. 88

4 Questions of representation

- Case study: stereotyping ............................... 91
- Representations and gender .......................... 94
- Representations and the real ......................... 97
- Questions of positive and negative images .......... 99
- Other ways of changing representations ............ 103
- References ............................................. 105
- Further reading ........................................ 106

Case study: Stardom and celebrity

- The construction of Hollywood stars ............ 107
- ‘Authenticity’ ........................................ 110
- Celebrity and news .................................... 111
- References ............................................. 115
- Further reading ........................................ 116
CONTENTS

5 Ideologies and power
- Origins of the term: Marxist approaches
- Post-Marxism and critical pluralism
- Discourses and lived cultures
- References
- Further reading

Case study: News
- News and dominant values
- News values
- ‘News professionals’ and news cultures
- Impartiality and news
- References
- Further reading

6 Audiences
- Ways of thinking about audiences
- The effects model
- The uses and gratifications model
- Research methods and assumptions about audiences
- Semiotics and audiences
- Contexts of reception and ‘cultural competences’
- Finally: the audience ‘in’ the media?
- References
- Further reading

Case study: Selling audiences
- Advertising agencies
- Television and advertising
- Scheduling
- A note on the reporting of television funding
- References
- Further reading

7 Institutions
- Defining ‘institution’
- An institutional analysis of photography
- Applying ideas about media institutions
- Media institutions and society
- References
- Further reading
Contents

Production | 290
Post-production | 296
Distribution and exhibition | 299
References and further reading | 301

11 Production techniques

- Technical codes in print products | 304
- Technical codes in video production | 313
- 'Narrative codes' in video production | 320
- Technical codes in audio production | 326
References and further reading | 330

12 Distribution, promotion and selling advertising space

- Distribution structures in media industries | 332
- Case study 1: Film distribution in the UK | 336
- Distributing 'advertising-led' media | 340
- Case study 2: A local media market | 346
- Promotion | 348
References and further reading | 349

Case study: The British film industry

- Institution: what is a British film? | 351
- British film culture | 357
- British film-makers and film-making traditions | 358
References and further reading | 363

13 Advertising and branding

- Histories of advertising | 367
- Marketing and branding histories | 371
- The influence of advertising | 376
- Case study: The ASA and debates on regulation | 380
References | 383
Further reading | 383

Part III: Media Debates

14 Postmodernisms

- A period of social life: postmodernity? | 387
- A form of cultural sensibility characteristic of this period? | 389
- An aesthetic style? | 391
Debates | 393
Case study: Pulp Fiction 395
References 402
Further reading 403

15 Globalisation 404
What is meant by globalisation 404
The cultural imperialism debate 407
Rigging the ‘free market’? 411
Current debates 417
References 420
Further reading 421

16 Technologies 422
Outlining debates about ‘media technology’ 422
Technology: focus of conflict 424
Technological change 426
Technology and the media workplace 434
Case study: Cybercultures – living in an Internet world 438
Digital imaging 442
Conclusion 444
References 444
Further reading 444

17 Realisms 446
Why realisms! 446
Historical background 448
Realisms and technology 448
Sound recording and realism 450
Realisms in film and video 451
Case study 1: Documentary mode: direct cinema 454
Documentary practice and forms 458
Mixing fiction and non-fiction 462
Case study 2: Neo-realism and the realist fiction film 462
Neo-realist practice in contemporary cinema 467
Realism and politics 469
References 471
Further reading 472

18 Regulation 473
Why regulate? 473
Historical background 474
Deregulation and liberalisation 477