Mediating between Concepts and Grammar

Edited by
Holden Härtl
Heike Tappe

Mouton de Gruyter
Berlin • New York
Contents

Mediating between concepts and language – Processing structures
Heike Tappe and Holden Härtl

Mediating between non-linguistic and linguistic structures

Coordination of eye gaze and speech in sentence production
Femke F. van der Meulen

Time patterns in visual reception and written phrase production
Philip Cummins, Boris Gutbrod and Rüdiger Weingarten

Animacy effects in language production: From mental model to formulator
Kathy Y. van Nice and Rainer Dietrich

Incremental preverbal messages
Markus Guhe

Word order scrambling as a consequence of incremental sentence production
Gerard Kempen and Karin Harbusch

The linearization of argument DPs and its semantic reflection
Andreas Späch
Contents

Semantics as a gateway to language 197
Heike Wiese

Mediating between event conceptualization and verbalization 223

Temporal relations between event concepts 225
Elke van der Meer, Reinhard Beyer, Herbert Hagendorf, Dirk Strauch and Matthias Kolbe

Segmenting event sequences for speaking 255
Ralf Nüse

Events: Processing and neurological properties 277
Maria Mercedes Piñango

Aspectual (re-)interpretation: Structural representation and processing 303
Johannes Dölling

Type coercion from a natural language generation point of view 323
Markus Egg and Kristina Striegnitz

The mediating function of the lexicon 349

The thematic interpretation of plural nominalizations 351
Veronika Ehrich

Competing principles in the lexicon 379
Andrea Schalley
Concepts of motion and their linguistic encoding 405
Ladina B. Tschander

Too abstract for agents? The syntax and semantics of agentivity in abstracts of English research articles 433
Heidrun Dorgeloh and Anja Wanner

Index of names 457

Index of subjects 463