Shelton A. Gunaratne
Proto-Indo-European expansion, rise of English, and the international language order: a humanocentric analysis 1

David C. S. Li
Between English and Esperanto: what does it take to be a world language? 33

Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu
Globalization of English, and language maintenance and shift in South Africa 65

Larissa Remennick
Language acquisition as the main vehicle of social integration: Russian immigrants of the 1990s in Israel 83

Kutlay Yagmur and Mehmet-Ali Akinci
Language use, choice, maintenance, and ethnolinguistic vitality of Turkish speakers in France: intergenerational differences 107

Alexander Maxwell
“Literary dialects” in China and Slovakia: imagining unitary nationality with multiple orthographies 129

Anjel Tozcu and James Coady
Development of biliteracy skills in Turkish and Armenian: bilingual development of Armenians in Turkey 151
Book reviews

Yuko Sugita
Telephone Calls: Unity and Diversity in Conversational Structure across Languages and Cultures, edited by Kang Kwong Luke and Theodossia-Soula Pavlidou 177

Florian Coulmas
Woorden van de wereld. Het mondiaal talenstelsel, by Abram de Swaan 180