Carl Peters and
German Imperialism
1856–1918

A Political Biography

ARNE PERRAS

CLARENDON PRESS • OXFORD
CONTENTS

Abbreviations x

INTRODUCTION 1

1. ACADEMIC LAURELS AND EMPTY POCKETS: PETERS'S EARLY YEARS (1856–1883)
   School and University 14
   The English Experience 20
   Schopenhauer, Darwin, and Peters's 'Reconciliation of Philosophy and Science' 25

2. THE QUEST FOR EAST AFRICA (1884–1885)
   The Beginning of Peters's Colonial Agitation 3
   'At Last, at Last!': Bismarck's Bid for Colonies 41
   Three Men and a Map: Pegging out a 'German India' 46
   Peters's Usagara Expedition and the Imperial Charter 52

3. 'FROM THE NYASSA TO THE NILE': PETERS AND THE GERMAN EAST AFRICA COMPANY (1885–1887)
   Bismarck, Peters, and the Hamburg Merchants 67
   Bismarck, Peters, and the German Banks 75
   'Furor Teutonicus': Peters, the Missions, and the German National League of Women 81
   The Drummer: Pan-German Agitation for the Colonial Cause 86
   Rivalry and Partition: Germany, Britain, and the Sultanate of Zanzibar 99
   'Haven't You Shot a Negro Yet?': German Stations on the Mainland 112
   The Zanzibar Mission: Peters and the Making of the Coastal Treaty 118
4. RESCUING EMIN PASHA (1888–1890)
   Expansionist Designs and Imperial Politics: The Making of the Emin Pasha Committee 131
   The German Emin Pasha Expedition 144

5. AFTER BISMARCK: THE HELIGOLAND–ZANZIBAR AGREEMENT AND ITS CONSEQUENCES (1890–1891)
   Imperial Politics and the Making of the Pan-German League 168
   Literary Images of Colonial Heroism 179

6. KING OR PAWN? PETERS ON KILIMANJARO (1891–1892)
   Marealle’s New Ally 185
   Machine-gun Diplomacy and Illusions of Control: Peters’s March against the Warombo 194
   Deterrence through Execution: The Hangings of Mabruk and Jagodjo 197
   German Defeat and the Subjugation of Meli: The ‘Bülow-Disaster’ and its Aftermath 200

7. COLONIAL SCANDAL (1892–1897)
   The Uncomfortable Candidate 205
   Peters’s Career on Ice 209
   ‘Always Full Steam Ahead’: Naval Agitation and the Transvaal Crisis 211
   ‘And Brutus is an Honourable Man’: The Fall 214

8. STRUGGLING FOR A POLITICAL COMEBACK (1897–1918)
   Wilhelm’s First Act of Grace 231
   Literary Success: England und die Engländer 234
   Peters’s Libel Suits and a Second Act of Grace 236

9. TOWARDS NEW GLORY (1919–1945)
   Weimar and Colonial Revisionism: The Odyssey of a Monument 243
Contents

Hitler and Peters’s Final Rehabilitation  247
‘The Great Educator of the German Nation’  249

10. PETERS’S DISPUTED LEGACY AFTER 1945  252

CONCLUSION  257

Bibliography  260

Index  277