Contents

CAROL HARRINGTON AND AYMAN SALEM
Introduction 9

EDUARD KODUA
Notes on the function of sociology 17

SALOME ASATIANI
On one version of hegemonic strategy:
a Gramscian insight into John Rawls’s thought 23

AYMAN SALEM
Aspects of Talcott Parsons’s sociology 39

ATTILA MELEGH
Floating East: Eastern Europe on the map of global institutional actors 63

CAROL HARRINGTON
Prostitutes and peacekeepers in Bosnia-Herzegovina and Kosovo 95

IAGO KACHKACHISHVILI
Anthony Giddens’s structuration theory and some peculiarities of Georgian society 121

TATIANA YARKOVA
Applying the concepts of legitimacy and trust in Kyrgyzstan 129

DONNACHA Ó BEACHÁIN
Power without passion: the institutionalisation and de-radicalisation of political parties 141
IVAN CHORVÁT
Sociology between order and chaos 155

MARKUS MUELLER
Can empirical research produce critical results?
The case of urban sociology 167

BALIHAR SANGHERA
After the cultural turn, a return to the moral economy 181

LYNNE ALICE
Kosovo in transition: an insider-outsider doing social research on Kosovo’s present and future 199

AYMAN SALEM
Advertising First World culture: civic education in the former Communist bloc 225

INGRIDA GECIENE
Democracy and the middle class: Western theoretical models in a post-Communist context 235

SARAH AMSLER
‘From truth in strength to strength in truth’: the reconstitution of power/knowledge in post-Soviet Central Asian sociology 257

Notes on the Contributors 289