Contents

Michael Clyne
  Preface  1

Sandra Kipp and Catrin Norrby
  Introduction  3

Michael Clyne and Sandra Kipp
  Australia’s community languages  7

Helen Borland
  Intergenerational language transmission in an established Australian migrant community: what makes the difference?  23

Julie Bradshaw
  Parent and child perspectives on Greek language education in Australia  43

Sandra Kipp
  A language community from a historical perspective: homogeneity and variation  55

Antonia Rubino
  Linguistic practices and language attitudes of second-generation Italo-Australians  71

Doris Schüpbach
  “It’s something that’s just faded away”: how a Melbourne family of Swiss-German background makes sense of language shift  89
Bent Sondergaard† and Catrin Norrby
Language maintenance and shift in the Danish community in Melbourne 105

Jo Winter and Anne Pauwels
Language maintenance in friendships: second-generation German, Greek, and Vietnamese migrants 123

Review article

Trevor Batrouney
Language and Orthodox churches in Australia 141

Small languages and small language communities 52

Jon Todal
The Southern Saami language in Svahken Sijte 147