HEROES OF PHARMACY
PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP IN TIMES OF CHANGE

DENNIS B. WORTHEN, PHD
LLOYD SCHOLAR
LLOYD LIBRARY AND MUSEUM
CINCINNATI, OHIO

American Pharmacists Association
Improving medication use. Advancing patient care.

WASHINGTON, D.C.
Contents

Foreword ix
Lowell J. Anderson

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xvii
Author's Note xix

Introduction 1
Who Are Your Heroes? 13
Founders of the American Pharmaceutical Association 15
George Francis Archambault: Pharmacy's Change Agent 25
James Hartley Beal: Educator-Statesman 31
Donald Crum Brodie: Pharmacy Theoretician 39
Chauncey Ira Cooper: Champion of Minority Pharmacists 47
Zada Mary Cooper: Advocate of Women in Pharmacy 53
Andrew Craigie: America's First Apothecary General 59
Conrad Lewis Diehl: APhA's Reporter on the Progress of Pharmacy 65
Henry Armitt Brown Dunning: Pharmacy Philanthropist and
Father of the APhA Foundation 73
Carl Thomas Durham: Pharmacy's Representative 81
Albert Ethelbert Ebert: Founder of American Pharmacy's Oldest Award 89
Robert Phillip Fischelis: Pharmacy Activist 97
Donald Eugene Francke: "Reformer by Nature, Doer by Necessity" 105
Edward Kremers: Pharmaceutical Education Reformer 113
J. Leon Lascoff: Champion of Professionalism 121
Ernest Little: Champion of the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education ................................................................. 129
Rufus Ashley Lyman: A Towering Figure in the Field of Pharmaceutical Education .............................................................. 137
John Michael Maisch: Father of Adequate Pharmaceutical Legislation ...... 145
Edward Parrish: Pioneer Ethicist .......................................................................................................................................................... 153
Albert Benjamin Prescott: Pharmacy Education's Revolutionary Spark .... 161
William Procter, Jr.: Father of American Pharmacy .................................................................................................................. 169
Joseph Price Remington: Teacher of Teachers .......................................................................................................................... 173
Charles Rice: Creator of the Modern Scientific Pharmacopoeia and Father of the National Formulary .................................................. 179
Irving Rubin: Tireless Campaigner for Pharmacy .......................................................................................................................... 185
Edward G. Spease: Father of Hospital Pharmacy Standards ..................... 191
Edward Robinson Squibb: Advocate of Product Standards ......................... 199
Linwood Franklin Tice: Champion of Students .......................................................................................................................... 209
Henry Milton Whelpley: Association Worker ................................................ 215
Harvey A.K. Whitney: Pioneer in Hospital Pharmacy ...................................... 225

Index ......................................................................................................................................................................................... 229