Contents

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 7

Section I: Gender and Citizenship ............................................................................. 17

Ingrid Maria Hoofd
Feminist Activism in the High-tech West: The Complicity of Transversal and Networked Politics in Speed ................................................................. 19

Daniela Gronold
A European Matter: Examples of “Lived Citizenship” in the Slovenian Nation State ................................................................. 37

Isabelle Carles
Interdisciplinary Research Group on “Gender and Migration”
Citizenship and Rights: the Use of Racial Anti-discrimination Laws in a Gender Perspective ................................................................. 55

Simon Lapierre, Katrin Bain
Parental Responsibility and Partnership: Citizenship and Gender in British Children and Families Social Services ................................................................. 77

Arturas Tereskinas
Lithuanian Gays and Lesbians “Coming Out” in the Public/Private Divide: Sexual Citizenship Lithuanian Style ................................................................. 93

Section II: Gender and Science ................................................................................. 109

Barbara Bagilhole, Abigail Powell, Andrew Dainty
What Is It About UK Engineering Higher Education (HE) that Deters Women from an Engineering Career ................................................................. 111

Cathrine Hasse, Maja Hojer
Acknowledging Materiality as Agential Literacy ........................................................ 121

Małgorzata Miazek, Jenny Vainio
Reconciliation of Work and Family: Gender Differences Among Finnish and Polish Physicists ................................................................. 137
Marie-Pierre Moreau
“Plus Ça Change, Plus C'est La Même Chose?”: A Cross-National Comparison Of Gender Inequalities In The Teaching Profession

Julie Jarty
“Work/Life” Balance Regulations and Citizenship in Europe: A Comparative Study of Teachers’ Careers in France and Spain

Cornelia Schneider
Gender Action Plans – Effective Instruments for Promoting Gender Equality in the Sixth EU Framework Programme? Results of a Survey carried out by the FiF Contact Point “Women into EU Research”

Section III: Gender and Representation

Liedeke Plate
A Chapter in Cultural History? Literary “Re-Vision” and Citizenship

Edyta Just
The Visual Representation of IVF

Julie D. Palmer
The “Technofetus” as Citizen: The Impact of Three-Dimensional Ultrasound

Jelena Petrovic
Screening the Margins: The Representation of the Roma/Gypsy Woman in Film Production

Katarzyna Szmigiero
Masculinity and Madness: Cultural Representations of Mentally Ill Men

Carolyn Pedwell
Intersections and Entanglements: Tracing “the Anorexic” and “the Veiled Woman”

Emilia Korytkowska
“He Will Make You Suffer!” – Masculism’s Encounters with “the Arab” in the Context of Polish-Arab Intermarriages