Cultural Perspectives on Globalisation and Ireland
Contents

Foreword
FINTAN O’TOOLE vii

Introduction
EAMON MAHER 1

PART I: Globalisation and Irish Society

1. Inside Out: Time and Place in Global Ireland
MICHAEL CRONIN 11

2. The Global Irish Spirit
CATHERINE MAIGNANT 31

3. In at the Death: The French Press and the Celtic Tiger
GRACE NEVILLE 53

4. Negotiating the Self: The Spectral Mobile Subject
EUGENE O’BRIEN 67

5. Globalisation, Vulnerability and the Return to Religion:
Reflections from the Irish Experience
PEADR KIRBY 93

6. The Global is Personal
TOM INGLIS 113
PART II: Literary Perspectives on Globalisation and Ireland

7. Contemporary Irish Fiction and the Transnational Imaginary
   ANNE FOGARTY

8. 'Root and Routes': Home and Away in Friel and Heaney
   ALISON O'MALLEY-YOUNGER AND TOM HERRON

9. Irish Theatre and Globalisation: A Faustian Pact?
   PATRICK LONERGAN

10. 'Coming of Age' (and other Fictions of Globalisation) in Three Novels by Seamus Deane, Roddy Doyle and Patrick McCabe
    WILLY MALEY

11. 'The Universal is the Local without Walls': John McGahern
    and the Global Project
    EAMON MAHER

Notes on Contributors

Index