Pharmacy in Public Health

Edited by
Janet Kraska
School of Pharmacy and Biomolecular Sciences
Liverpool John Moores University
Liverpool
UK
Contents

Foreword x
Preface xi
Acknowledgements xiii
About the editor xiv
List of contributors xv
Abbreviations xvii

Section 1: Overview of public health

1 Public health in the UK 3
   Janet Kriska and Janet Atherton
   What is public health? 3
   Public health policy and structure in the UK 5
   Public health practice in the UK 8
   Public health working at different levels 9
   Working together to improve public health 13
   Skills required for public health practice 16

2 Determinants of health 19
   Roger Walker
   Background 19
   Determinants of health 20
   Measurement of deprivation 30

3 Pharmacy within public health: a UK perspective 33
   Christine M Bond and Margaret C Watson
   Pharmacists as public health practitioners 34
   Pharmacist public health specialists 40
   Training 41
   Career progression 42
Contents

4 Public health data
Janet Krskka and Penelope A Phillips-Howard

- Causality
- Demographic data
- Epidemiological data
- Surveillance data

5 An international perspective
Ines Krass and John Bell

- Pharmacy's public health role in developing countries
- The global burden of communicable diseases
- The global burden of chronic diseases
- International opportunities for pharmacists

Section 2: Developing pharmacy public health services

6 Needs assessment and public involvement
Fiona Harris

- Health needs assessment
- Involving patients and the public
- Prioritisation of needs and services designed to meet needs
- Health needs assessment within healthcare policy in England
- Health needs assessment within pharmacy

7 Evidence-based delivery
Dyfrig A Hughes

- Evidence-based medicine
- Dealing with competing priorities to ensure equitable distribution of services and technologies
- Evidence-based pharmacy practice

8 Working together
Fiona Harris

- Partnership working
- Making partnerships work
- Partnership working and pharmacy

9 Developing pharmacy services
David Pfleger

- Service development proposals
- Governance of pharmacy services
- Service evaluation and audit
Section 3: Improving public health through pharmacy

11 Health education opportunities
Claire Anderson and Alison Blenkinsopp
What is health education? 177
Changing behaviour 181
Advice giving and interventions 184
Practical health education 186
Healthy-living pharmacies 199

12 Health protection
Adam J Mackridge
Protecting against the potential harms caused by medicines 202
Substance use 207
Communicable diseases 213

13 Preventing disease: screening in the pharmacy
Ines Krass and Carol Armour
Principles of screening 221
Screening for diagnosis of non-communicable diseases 224
Screening within existing conditions and in high risk populations: asthma 236
Sale of screening kits from community pharmacies 238
The future of pharmacy screening 239

14 Medicines management
Janet Kriska and Brian Godman
Ensuring cost-effective use of medicines within populations 246
Ensuring safe use of medicines within populations 258
Communicating medicines management issues 266

Glossary 271
Index 273