HEROES OF PHARMACY
Professional Leadership in Times of Change

Dennis B. Worthen, PhD
Lloyd Scholar
Lloyd Library and Museum
Cincinnati, Ohio

American Pharmacists Association
Improving medication use. Advancing patient care.
WASHINGTON, D.C.
Contents

Foreword xi
   Lowell J. Anderson
Preface xv
Acknowledgements xxiii
Author’s Note xxv

Introduction 1
Who Are Your Heroes? 19
Founders of the American Pharmaceutical Association 23

   Proponent of Pharmacy’s Independence 33

George Francis Archambault (1909–2001):
   Pharmacy’s Change Agent 45

James Hartley Beal (1861–1945):
   Educator–Statesman 51

George Mahlon Beringer, Sr. (1860–1928):
   Practical Pharmacist 61

Donald Crum Brodie (1908–1994):
   Pharmacy Theoretician 69

Henry C. Christensen (1865–1947):
   Advocate of Reciprocal Registration in Pharmacy 77

George Dilwin Coggeshall (1808–1891):
   First Great American Pharmacy School Graduate 85

Chauncey Ira Cooper (1906–1983):
   Champion of Minority Pharmacists 93
Zada Mary Cooper (1875–1961):
Advocate of Women in Pharmacy .................................................. 99

Patrick Henry Costello (1897–1971):
Architect of Reciprocal Standards .................................................. 105

Andrew Craigie (1754–1819):
America’s First Apothecary General .............................................. 113

Conrad Lewis Diehl (1840–1917):
APhA’s Reporter on the Progress of Pharmacy ................................. 119

Pharmacy Philanthropist and Father of the APhA Foundation ........... 127

Carl Thomas Durham (1892–1974):
Pharmacy’s Representative ............................................................ 135

Eugene Gustave Eberle (1863–1942):
Pharmacy’s Chronicler .................................................................. 145

Albert Ethelbert Ebert (1840–1906):
Founder of American Pharmacy’s Oldest Award .............................. 153

Robert Phillip Fischelis (1891–1981):
Pharmacy Activist ........................................................................... 161

Donald Eugene Francke (1910–1978):
“Reformer by Nature, Doer by Necessity” ........................................ 171

Gloria Niemeyer Francke (1922–2008):
Pharmacy’s First Lady ................................................................... 179

Jere Edwin Goyan (1930–2007):
Proponent of Expanding Pharmacists’ Role ...................................... 189

Carl Svanté Nicanor Hallberg (1856–1910):
Pharmacy’s Rough Diamond ........................................................... 199

Henry Parr Hynson (1855–1921):
Community Pharmacist Advocate .................................................. 209

Lyman Frederick Kebler (1863–1955):
Foe to Fakers .................................................................................. 217

Harvey Evert Kendig (1878–1950):
Architect of the U.S. Army Pharmacy Corps ................................... 225

Edward Kremers (1865–1941):
Pharmaceutical Education Reformer ............................................. 233
CONTENTS

J. Leon Lascoff (1867–1943):
 Champion of Professionalism ........................................... 243

 Enthusiasm for Excellence ........................................... 251

Ernest Little (1888–1973):
 Champion of the American Foundation for
 Pharmaceutical Education ........................................... 261

John Uri Lloyd (1849–1936):
 Wizard of American Plant Pharmacy ..................................... 269

Rufus Ashley Lyman (1875–1957):
 A Towering Figure in the Field of Pharmaceutical Education ... 279

John Michael Maisch (1831–1893):
 Father of Adequate Pharmaceutical Legislation ...................... 287

Edwin Leigh Newcomb (1882–1950):
 Pharmacy’s Many-Sided Man ........................................... 295

Paul Frederick Parker (1919–1998):
 A Visionary Innovator .................................................. 305

Edward Parrish (1822–1872):
 Pioneer Ethicist ........................................................... 315

Frederick Belding Power (1853–1927):
 Pioneer Pharmaceutical Scientist ....................................... 323

Justin Lawrence Powers (1895–1981):
 Champion of Improved Medication Standards ......................... 331

Albert Benjamin Prescott (1832–1905):
 Pharmacy Education’s Revolutionary Spark ......................... 339

William Procter, Jr. (1817–1874):
 Father of American Pharmacy ........................................... 347

Joseph Price Remington (1847–1918):
 Teacher of Teachers ..................................................... 351

Charles Rice (1841–1901):
 Creator of the Modern Scientific Pharmacopoeia and
 Father of the National Formulary ................................... 357

Irving Rubin (1916–1998):
 Tireless Campaigner for Pharmacy ..................................... 363
Hugo Herman Schaefer (1891–1967):
  Pharmacy’s Volunteer .......................................................... 369

Daniel B. Smith (1792–1883):
  Patriarch of American Pharmacy ........................................ 379

Edward G. Spease (1883–1957):
  Father of Hospital Pharmacy Standards ................................ 387

Edward Robinson Squibb (1819–1900):
  Advocate of Product Standards ........................................... 395

Robert Lee Swain (1887–1963):
  Pharmacy’s Elder Statesman .............................................. 405

Linwood Franklin Tice (1909–1996):
  Champion of Students ....................................................... 417

Henry Solomon Wellcome (1853–1936):
  World Citizen ...................................................................... 423

Henry Milton Whelply (1861–1926):
  Association Worker ............................................................ 433

Harvey A. K. Whitney (1894–1957):
  Pioneer in Hospital Pharmacy ............................................ 443

Martin Inventius Wilbert (1865–1916):
  Bridge Builder between Pharmacy and Medicine .................. 449

Frederick John Wulling (1866–1947):
  Fighter for Increased Professional Educational Standards ....... 459

Heroes of Pharmacy Postscript:
  Ave atque Vale ..................................................................... 469

Index .................................................................................... 475