Contents

Acknowledgements .................................................. vii
Transcription conventions ....................................... ix

PART I: Introduction

Pentti Haddington, Lorenza Mondada and Maurice Nevile
Being mobile: Interaction on the move .......................... 3

PART II: Staging and collaborating for mobility

Dirk vom Lehn
Withdrawing from exhibits: The interactional organisation of museum visits ...................................................... 65

Mathias Broth & Fredrik Lundström
A Walk on the pier: Establishing relevant places in mobile instruction .......................................................... 91

Elvys De Stefani
The collaborative organisation of next actions in a semiotically rich environment: Shopping as a couple ....................... 123

Maurice Nevile
Seeing on the move: Mobile collaboration on the battlefield .... 152

PART III: Projecting and engaging mobility

Pentti Haddington
Projecting mobility: Passengers directing drivers at junctions ... 179

Eric Laurier
Before, in and after: Cars making their way through roundabouts . 210

PART IV: Coordinating and controlling mobility

Inka Koskela, Ilkka Arminen & Hannele Palukka
Centres of coordination as a nexus of aviation ............... 245
Christian Licoppe and Julien Morel
Interactionally generated encounters and the accomplishment of mutual proximity in mobile phone conversations 277

Lorenza Mondada
Coordinating mobile action in real time: The timely organisation of directives in video games 300

PART V: Creating and performing mobility

Leelo Keevallik
Here in time and space: Decomposing movement in dance instruction 345

Karine Lan Hing Ting, Dimitri Voilmy, Monika Büscher & Drew Hemment
The sociality of stillness 371

PART VI: Epilogue

Paul McIlvenny
Interacting outside the box: Between social interaction and mobilities 409

Person index 419
Subject index 422