

CONTENTS

Preface * IX
List of plates * XII
List of figures * XVI
Key to figures * XVIII
Notes on transliteration * XIX
Authors note * XXI
Chronology * XXII

I INTRODUCTION | 2

The land | 6

The people | 25

2 THE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND | 40

Prehistory and Bronze Age civilisations | 42

Iron Age and the Iranians | 50

Alexander and the establishment of Greek Bactria | 59

Nomad invasions and the Kushan Empire | 71

The Turk Empire and last flowering of Gandharan art | 82

The early Islamic period | 88

The later Islamic period | 94

3 THE ARCHITECTURAL BACKGROUND | 100

Groundwork: Bronze Age beginnings | 100

Culminating traditions: Iron Age developments | 102

Convergent traditions: Hellenism from the West,
Buddhism from the East | 104

Greek, Roman, Buddhist: the art of Gandhara | 111

Formation of the new and transformation of the old:
the architecture of Islam | 116

4 THE DISCOVERY OF AFGHANISTAN | 122

Greeks bearing gifts | 122

Pilgrims of the Middle Way | 125

Exotic imagery and the first Muslims | 128

The European re-awakening | 129

Arcadia found: the first Mogul | 130

Soldiers, charlatans and scholars | 132

Players in the Great Game | 134

Advance of the archaeologists | 137

Road to Katmandu and road to ruin | 139

5 GAZETTEER OF MAIN SITES AND MONUMENTS | 146

Glossary * 277

Bibliography * 279

Index * 294